OFFICE HOURS: Mon-Fri 9:00-5:00p.m.; Sat 1-6 p.m. & Sun 9-1:15 p.m.

All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob Vocations... Easter! Resurrection and new life; a new life shared from an earthen tomb. This has been the meaning of life for Christian people for two thousand years. There is nothing more secure, nothing more lasting. Come and share the thrill of proclaiming this truth through your life as a priest, religious or deacon. Call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Statue of St. Anthony repaired and refinished!!!

Paid for by Fr. Bob in memory of his mother. St. Anthony was her favourite Saint. As a mother of 5 boys, no wonder!! A big thank you to Alessandra for all her hard work and time dedicated to this refinishing project.

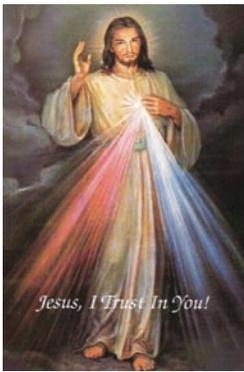

Communion Reflection... Parents do it. So do teachers, bosses, pastors. In every grouping, somebody carries ultimate responsibility. The buck stops with them. They're the last court of appeal. It's not easy sitting in that chair. The weight of the welfare of others bears down on the one who wields authority. In faith, the pope isn't really the highest authority. Even he must bow before the God who is all in all. The one who occupies Peter's Chair has to entrust his discernment to the power of the Holy Spirit, and to disciplines of prayer, the wisdom of consultants, and the wealth of church tradition. You and I might consider how we utilize the authority we possess. We have the power to vote and to make our voices heard. We control the wallop of the wallet. Perhaps most importantly, we have the crucial influence of our example before those who know us every hour. How do you use the clout of your example to make the world a more compassionate place?

From the Pastor's Desk

Some of us don't respond well to imperative. But this one comes straight from Jesus: don't babble when you pray!

Matthew 6:7 Multiplying pious word isn't what prayer's about. If you find yourself babbling—and I do it myself—be quiet for a minute and send a plumb line to the bottom of your heart. What's really going on down there? Bring that to God instead. Saint Polycarp, is crisp and direct in his witness. First-century bishop of Smyrna (modern day Turkey), Polycarp was a student of the apostle John and possibly ordained by him. "Hear it plainly. I am a Christian," Polycarp declared at his trial. "For 86 years I have served Jesus Christ and he has never abandoned me. How could I curse my blessed king and saviour?" Impassioned by his faith, Polycarp was sentenced to burn at the stake. The fire wouldn't take him. They had to stab him instead. Polycarp's fervor seems far removed from our tame churchgoing. What would it be like to have faith the burns hotter than fire?

Feast of the Divine Mercy

The message of Divine Mercy is that God is Merciful. He is love itself poured out for us, and He wants no one to escape that merciful love. The message is that God wants us to turn to Him with trust and repentance while there is still time, before He comes as the just Judge. This turning with trust to Him who is Mercy itself is the only source of peace for mankind. Turning to and imploring God's mercy is the answer to this troubled world. There is no escaping that answer.

St. Joseph: Our Father in Faith Among the saints, Joseph is the preeminent model for husbands and fathers; he is also a guide for all Christians, whatever their state in life. Pope Francis has invited us to grow closer to the patron and protector of the Holy Family and of the Church in this year of St. Joseph. Pope Francis wrote an Apostolic letter announcing 2021 as the year of St. Joseph google "Patris Corde" WITH A FATHER'S HEART for the full letter.

Prayer to St. Joseph

Glorious Patriarch Saint Joseph,
Whose powers makes the impossible possible,
come to my aid in these times of anguish and difficulty.
Take under your protection the serious and troubling situations that I commend to you, that they may have a happy outcome.
My beloved father, all my trust is in you.
Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain,
and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary,
show me that your goodness is as great as your power.

Pope Francis @Pontifex...In these dark months of the pandemic, let us listen to the Risen Lord as he invites us to begin anew and never lose hope.

Provide-A-Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

A frog was playing on the rafters of a dairy farm one night and fell into a pail of cream. At first, he panicked. Scrambling for survival, he swam faster and faster. When the farmer arrived the next morning, he found the frog standing on a cake of butter, exhausted but happy to be alive. When we let our problems overwhelm us, we stop jumping, hopping, and scrambling for survival. It's easy to give up and stop praying. We remember times when we got down on our knees and prayed and felt as if God didn't hear us. Our answer didn't come. We dialed the prayers hotline and it went straight to voicemail. God does answer our prayers—in his time, not ours. Sometimes God may be saying "No!" because we're simply not ready to receive the answer. We need to grow. We may need to face an unresolved problem, change a bad habit, or stop an unhealthy behaviour. Or maybe what we're praying for isn't the best things for us right now. That person you hope to marry might not make the best spouse. Your dream job...it might be a nightmare. Listen. Give God your undivided attention and watch what happens.

Thank You! To all who helped to make Easter so special, especially Lakeside Garden Gallery for the lilies. Thank you for your prayers and to all who helped with music, lilies, to our Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, altar servers, Knight's of Columbus for ushering. A special thank you to the Kubera & Mates' Families for the beautiful decorations at St. Cornelius.

Thank You! It is such a joy, each week, to have you with us as we gather as a family of God and pray confidently that we too may join Christ in the Resurrection. ~ Fr. Bob
