Vocations... God the Father, Creator; God the Son, Redeemer; God the Holy Spirit, Sanctifier. When we go out to "make disciples of all nations", we have a lot to tell! God is present everywhere.

Would you be willing to proclaim the truth of God's love and presence in your life as a priest, religious or deacon? If so, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Holy Spirit, Paraclete Spirit, comfort our hearts. Our Advocate, sweet counselor of the soul, make us witnesses of the "today" of God, prophets of unity for the Church and humanity, and apostles grounded in your grace, which creates and renews all things.

On the Lighter Side: The gift of fortitude: A mother refused to permit her little boy to go for a picnic with his classmates. On the day of the picnic, however, she changed her mind and gave him permission. But he sighed and confessed, "It's too late Mummy, I've already prayed for rain on the school picnic day!"

Communion Reflection... In the spring I set my alarm clock to awaken me early in the morning at sunrise. As I look out my window, the sky is usually painted with beautiful shades of colour. Sometimes the glass on the window reflects the colour. I feel the presence of Jesus and his love. God is certainly at work with the sunrise. Won't you join me these spring days and view the morning sunrise? It helps count for our spiritual growth. Later on, after you have gotten up for the day, it would be beneficial to pray "Lord Jesus, remind me at sunrise of your amazing love—your life on earth, your sacrifice on the cross, your resurrection, your ascension, your way of pleading my case before the throne of God." You can also look to Psalm 88:13 "In the morning my prayer comes before you."

Pastor's Message Some time ago, a lady planned to ask my advice about a problem she was having, but she wanted to pray about it first. Before long, her problem was answered through her prayerful trust in God's help, and she came to share her experience with me. Of course, we often need the advice of others to help us, but we always need the help of God that comes to us through prayer. We need the prayerful silence that enables us to become aware of God's compassionate and loving guidance that we often miss in the noisy distractions of daily life. Can we find more time to be with God in quiet prayer and to ask for the help we need? Jesus our joy, you often spent hours in silent prayer with your Father. Help all of us to follow your example so that we might share in what you experienced.

During the month of May special focus is placed on devotions, such as the Rosary. Visit our youtube channel to pray along with the Rosary at both churches, St. Cornelius & St. John's.

Prayer to Our Lady of Lourdes

O Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy,
 you are the refuge of sinners,
 the health of the sick,
 and the comfort of the afflicted.
 You know my wants,
 my troubles, my sufferings.
 By your appearance at the Grotto of Lourdes you made it a privileged sanctuary where your favors are given to people streaming to it from the whole world.
 Over the years countless sufferers have obtained the cure for their infirmities - whether of soul, mind, or body.
 Therefore I come to you with limitless confidence to implore your motherly intercession.
 Obtain, O loving Mother,
 the grant of my requests.
 Through gratitude for Your favors,
 I will endeavor to imitate Your virtues,
 that I may one day share in Your glory.
 Amen.

Have a Blessed Week!!

Humanitarian Relief - India's Covid-19 Outbreak

Since the pandemic began, India's Catholic Church, acting principally through Caritas India, has been supporting some of the most disadvantaged groups, such as those with inadequate housing, migrant labourers, persons with special needs and widows. Relief services and material provided by the Church, or with its support include: food at kitchens and distribution centers in slums, masks, sanitizers and hygiene kits, psychosocial support and hotline services, public education campaigns on infection prevention and vaccination, and supporting the public healthcare system from Church run clinics and hospitals. Those wishing to help may do so online through the Archdiocesan website:

www.archtoronto.org ; by phone through the Development office 416-934-3411; or through the Parish - make cheques payable to St. John's - India Covid-19 Disaster relief.

Provide-A-Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

We all face tough times in life. There are financial problems, deaths, and broken relationships. It's up to us to choose how we respond to them. Consume or connect? We can shut down emotionally and drown out the tough times by consuming too much alcohol, food, or unsafe drugs, or we can be consumed with anger, causing us to lash out at others. The right choice is to connect. Call a friend. Don't isolate and suffer alone—reach out and share your struggles. Talk about your feelings. Attend a support group. Others have been there and can offer helpful insights and encouragement. Take it to God. And if you still find yourself struggling, seek out a professional. Use this week to reach out to someone who is going through a rough patch. Ask, "How can I help?" Then listen.

The month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart. Of all devotions, devotion to the Sacred Heart was, and remains, one of the most widespread and popular in the Church. Understood in the light of the Scriptures, the term "Sacred Heart of Jesus" denotes the entire mystery of Christ, the totality of his being, and his person considered in its most intimate essential: Son of God, uncreated wisdom; infinite charity, principal of the salvation and sanctification of mankind. The "Sacred Heart" is Christ, the Word Incarnate, Saviour, intrinsically containing, in the Spirit, an infinite divine-human love for the Father and for his brothers. Devotion to the Sacred Heart is a wonderful historical expression of the Church's piety for Christ: it calls for a fundamental attitude of conversion and reparation, of love and gratitude, apostolic commitment and dedication to Christ and his saving work.
