Vocations... In the Gospel many people hunger for a small amount of food. In our day, there are too many people for the small number of priests, sisters, brothers and deacons. We too must trust in the Lord by praying for vocations. If you feel God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Mass on the Road this Summer: For mass schedules while traveling this summer, go to www.masstimes.org on the web. You will find Mass times by city and parish, information on the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, non-English services and much more for many parishes.

Communion Reflection... I lived on the shady side of the road and watched my neighbours' gardens across the way revelling in the sunshine. I felt I was poor and from door to door I went in my hunger. The more they gave me from their careless abundance the more I became aware of my beggar's bowl. Till one morning I awoke from my sleep. At the sudden opening of my door and you came and asked for alms. In despair I broke open the lid of my chest and was startled into finding my own wealth.

People preparing for a trip are advised to take certain precautions to preserve the condition of the home they leave behind. It's also suggested they carefully examine the condition of their car to insure a vacation free from mechanical breakdown. If no car is involved, then proper means should be taken to pack all that is necessary for a worry free vacation. Our spiritual journeys also involve taking precautions. We should avoid at all costs leaving behind a long line of people with hurt feelings and bitter memories of how we treated them. The good we did and the evil we endured should be the best tribute to the efforts we made at following Christ in our earthly life. Our journey into eternity ought to find us carrying nothing but the goodness of our actions. Nothing else is necessary. Nothing else will get us to where we really want to go.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Only a heart that is not taken over by hastiness is capable of being moved, that is, of not allowing itself to be caught up in itself and by things to do, and is aware of others, of their wounds, their needs. Compassion is born from contemplation.

First Holy Communions

Please pray for our young people receiving their First Holy Communion during the months of July and August.

“Whomever eats this bread lives forever”

Confirmations

Please pray for our young people who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation during the months of July and August.

World Day for grandparents and the Elderly

Earlier this year, Pope Francis established the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, which will be held every year on the fourth Sunday in July, near the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne. The theme announced by His Holiness Pope Francis for the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly on Sunday July 25th is “I am with you always.”

Today’s Quote: Grandparents are the uniting link between generations to transmit to the young the experience of life and faith. ~ Pope Francis

A Prayer for the Elderly

Thank you Lord for the long life you have granted them.
 Help us let them know we value them,
 their wisdom and experience.
 We ask that they be honoured and blessed,
 until the end of their lives.

Have a Blessed Week!!

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili’s may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John’s Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

Do you know what it is to be hungry? Most of us in our comfortable society would probably say, “No.” So many of us live a very good life. Of course, there are thousands who go to food banks every week to get provisions to live on for the week. The food banks are able to offer the basics, non-perishable items, milk and occasionally some meat. Children will come along with their mothers and grandmothers. In this world of ours, there is still so much hunger, here and throughout the world, which is to say nothing at all about so many malnourished souls. In this gospel story a large crowd is following Jesus because he has been healing the sick. What unfolds is a stunning story, of course. Think of it: Jesus providing lunch to thousands. Can you imagine the surprise of the little boy whose five loaves and two fish are distributed to so many? How different it might have been if the boy refused to share. Jesus’ own ministry was facilitated here by the cooperation of a child. This is, of course, a call to us all to reach out to the needs of others. Whatever we contribute, Christ will make it grow. This is so much more than a story about lunch. Exactly what happened and how, we do not know, but we do know that the story witnesses to the bounteous care of God for his people. “The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.”

On the Lighter Side... A man saw an ad online for a Christian horse, so he went to check it out. The horse’s owner said, “It’s easy to ride him. Just say ‘Praise the Lord!’ to make him go and ‘Amen’ to make him stop.” The man got on the horse and said, “Praise the Lord!” Sure enough, the horse started to walk. The man was enjoying his ride so much that he almost didn’t notice the cliff he and the horse were about to go over. He shouted, “AMEN!” at the top of his lungs, and the horse stopped right at the edge of the cliff. Relieved, he sighed, “Phew! Praise the Lord!”
