Communion Reflection... Do you like walking or taking hikes? How do you prepare for your walk or for a hike? Walking with Jesus means there can be hills and valleys, times when we are tired or times full of excitement. To walk with Jesus means building a relationship with him. How do you walk with Jesus? When you are on a walk or hike, meditate on the passion of Jesus. Talk to Jesus during your prayer time about concerns you are facing. Pray to him about the needs of your friends and family members. Listen to what Jesus tells you as you hear or read Scripture. Listen to the words of hymns at church or in your home. Listen to the words of the homily and prayers at Mass. Now is a time to build a closer identification with Jesus as you enjoy a journey with him. Walk with Jesus as you read God's Word and attend Church. You can also pray the following, help me to walk closer with you, Lord.

Vocations... Our second Scripture reading reminds us that "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father ..." God's gifts should prompt a response of gratitude, which should be the basis of our daily lives. If you feel God is offering you the gift of priesthood, religious life or diaconate, and you wish to respond generously, trusting in God, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

From the Pastor To whom will you speak today? Will your words be positive and encouraging? Will they be uplifting? The first words my parents spoke upon rising into the day were "Good morning, honey. How did you sleep?" (As they aged, an unbroken night of sleep became rare!) All day long we have ample opportunity to use our speech to thank a neighbour for shoveling our walk, to comment on the pretty name of the cashier at the grocery store, to applaud your child for their good parenting and to praise God for giving us yet another chance to be his mouthpiece. Spend a day noticing the words you say to others. How might you fine-tune them to God's glory? Thank you, Lord, for the gift of speech. May I train my tongue well to raise others up and to speak of your kingdom.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... God does not come to free us from our ever-present daily problems, but to free us from the real problem, which is the lack of love. This is the main cause of our personal, social, international and environmental ills. Thinking only of ourselves: this is the father of all evils.

Have a Blessed Week!!

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John’s and St. Cornelius Parish. Preparation booklets and application forms are available on the parish websites. We have now opened up dates and times for Baptism. Scheduling is done on a first come first serve basis. And while we continue to accept applications, you must attend a Baptism Prep meeting to secure a Baptism date. Unfortunately due to the current restrictions, we do not know when the next in person Prep meeting will take place so we have recorded the Baptism Prep meeting and put it up on our YouTube page. You will be required to watch the Prep video before you can schedule your child’s Baptism.

New to the Caledon?? Welcome new parishioners, to be a registered member of our parish is to have a sense of belonging to a Community of Faith. Please introduce yourself/family to the pastor and register as soon as possible by picking up a set of 2021 envelopes at the entrance. Fill in the front for the first month’s donations to register.

Registration is necessary for reference letters, eligibility for Sacraments and any other documentation. - Fr. Bob

Tenant pays heat ($3,500 yearly) and hydro ($70 monthly). Rent negotiable. If interested please email the office at stjohalbion@bellnet.ca

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili’s may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John’s Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

Feast of the Black Madonna

Our Lady of Czestochowa, the “Black Madonna” dates back to the time of the Twelve Apostles, painted by the hand of St. Luke the Evangelist, who used a tabletop from a table built by Jesus during his time as a carpenter. While Luke was painting Mary, she recounted to him the events in the life of Jesus that would eventually be used in his Gospel * 326 AD St. Helen finds the image of Our Lady and gifts it to her son Constantine, who builds a shrine to venerate it. * The image eventually falls to the care of Charlemagne, who presents it to Prince Leo of Ruthenia (northwest Hungary). * 14th century the image is transferred to Jasna Gora in Poland as an answer to a request made in a dream of Prince Ladislaus of Opola. * 1382 Tartars invaded the Prince’s fortress. During the attack an arrow strikes the painting and gets lodged in the neck. The prince flees with the painting during the night stopping in the town of Czestochowa. The painting is placed in a small church, where the prince builds a Pauline monastery and church to ensure its safety. * 1430 Hussites overrun the monastery, attempting to take the image. One of the looters takes the painting, puts it in a wagon and tries to drive away. The horses refuse to move, he strikes the painting twice with his sword, on his third attempt to strike it, he suddenly falls over writhing in pain and dies. * 1655 Poland is almost overrun by King Charles X of Sweden, only the area surrounding the monastery remains unconquered. The monks who live there are somehow able to defend the portrait throughout a 40 day siege. Poland is eventually able to drive out the invaders. King John II Casimir Vasa crowns the image of Our Lady of Czestochowa as Queen of Poland, placing the entire country under her care and protection. * 1920, Russia attempts to invade Poland, with the Russian army gathering on the banks of the Vistula and threatening Warsaw, they see an image of Our Lady in the clouds over the city, and withdraw. * Since the fall of Communism, many people from all over the world flock to Czestochowa on pilgrimages. * July 2016 Pope Francis visits Poland, venerates the image and says Mass. * The nickname “Black Madonna” comes from the soot residue which discolors the painting as a result of centuries of votive lights and candles burned in front of it.
