Communion Reflection... What does it mean to trust? Trust implies confidence in a relationship that's reliable in every season. If we've got good news, those whom we trust celebrate it with us. When we mourn, they shed real tears. When we're out of line, they tell us so—and don't walk away. If we go broke, they provide a loan or the couch. When we're humiliated wrongly, they don't avoid us like everyone else. Trusting someone gives us somewhere to turn when there's no place else to go. Often we put our trust in the wrong place: in people who are unreliable, a steady paycheck, a piece of land, a retirement fund, or our own abilities. Hanging from this flawed branch, it can be perilous when the bough breaks. St. Mary MacKillop tells us to "Trust in God's Providence, interfering—as is always does—for our own good."

Vocations... If we dare to trust God with our lives, great things happen. Give God your total self for, when the end of times comes, the wise and those who work for justice will shine forever. Dedicate your life to furthering the reign of God. If you feel God may be calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon in His Church, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Memory. To remember means "to return with the heart." It is good for us to nurture our memory with those who have loved us, taken care of us, lifted us up. The Heard of Jesus reminds us that whatever happens to us in life, we are loved.

This past year's been tough on the heart. Sickness and death, job loss and anxiety, isolation and loneliness: we weren't spared much in the lottery of misfortune. We've all fought for home behind our masks and inside of our six feet of sacred distance. Prophecy isn't normally the cure for the blues. Prophets do a lot of hollering: at rulers, priests, and people, telling them to wise up. Depending on the liturgical route, we've offered consolations from Jeremiah or Ezekiel. Jeremiah chapter 31 may be the happiest biblical passage this side of John the Baptist. Ezekiel chapter 37 contains the Dry Bones vision of a lifeless community fully restored. When these two guys are both optimistic, you know it's safe to hope! Make a new covenant with God. Ask for the restoration you need.

Prayer for the Deceased

Remember, Lord, those who have died and have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith, especially those for whom we now pray. May these and all who sleep in Christ, find in your presence light, happiness and peace. Through Christ our Lord.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven."

Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used for Masses, Memorial Candles, and Sanctuary improvements.

Come and See Day Retreat - Saturday November 20 at St. Augustine's Seminary.

Inviting single Catholic men 18 years and older, to cultivate a deeper prayer life and relationship with Jesus Christ; leading to a better discernment of God's call for their lives. Time for prayer, reflections and information on the process of becoming one of Christ's disciples as a Catholic priest. Please register online at www.vacationstoronto.ca for more information, please contact the Office of Vocations via email: vocations@archtoronto.org

Covid-19 contact tracing... although we have not had a need for contact tracing to date. The Cardinal has asked us to have a list of email addresses available to notify parishioners if/when the public health department tells us that there has been exposure. Please be sure that we have your email address by emailing us at stjohnalbion@bellnet.ca

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Last week the Good Shepherd picked up 56 chilies. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Words of healing are among the most welcome in any language. When tested for illness, we want the result to come back negative. If disease is discovered, we hope to be told there's a treatment. If a procedure must be done, we want the first words we hear afterwards to be: everything went well. If a relationship is severed, we long for words of forgiveness and reconciliation. Today our world is hungry for healing words. We seek words to heal racial injustice, prejudice, violence, fear and ignorance. We hope to walk into the future, whole and in peace. Peace begins in the heart. It spreads through kindness. It blossoms in justice. Let us pray, healer God, make our community whole again, body, mind, and spirit.

Please consider helping us to pay the bills during these troubling times. Drop off or mail your contributions to the parish office. By credit card please visit our parish website - Our Community - Donate. For Pre-authorized giving download an enrollment form from our parish website - Our Community - Donate. For Online banking e-mail campaign@archtoronto.org with Your name, Address, Parish name, Municipality. Thank you for your generosity!! If you have someone you would like me to pray for please email stjohnalbion@bellnet.ca

Have a Blessed Week!!

This Weeks 2nd Collection: Shepherds' Trust

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. For many of our retired shepherds, this means "lending a hand" to accommodate their special needs so that they continue to live with dignity. This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it is a way to care for those who always cared for us and give thanks for the blessings we have received through them.
