Communion Reflection... When a young man was hired as a farmhand, he told the farmer, "I can sleep through a storm." One night, the farmer was awakened by a violent storm. Calling for his new farmhand, he found him sleeping soundly. So the farmer quickly began to check to see if everything was secure: the shutters were tightly fastened; a supply of logs was next to the fireplace; bales of wheat were bound and wrapped; the barn was locked tight; the animals were calm with plenty of feed. The young man's words came back to the farmer, "I can sleep through a storm." Because the farmhand worked faithfully when the skies were clear, he was prepared for any storm. When a storm did actually break, he was not concerned or afraid. He could sleep in peace. How do we prepare the world for the presence of God? Do we do that only in the difficult times or are our trusting prayers and actions embedded in our very way of living—in the serene times as well as the stormy times? Watch your actions and thoughts today. Which ones pave the way for others to recognize and welcome the presence of God?

I've often heard people say, "I wish I had more faith," in a way that sounded like faith was a quantitative commodity that could be acquired. God offers to each person the gift of faith. All of the faith that we will ever need has been given to us simply by God's grace. His invitation is to all and in equal amounts; we simply need to accept it. Still, we can "grow in faith," as it were, by being open to its effects in our lives. Our attitude can reveal much about our faith. Do we make time to pray, to act more attentively towards those who are in need? Take this opportunity to grow in faith, and in doing so, become more attentive to God's action throughout your life.

Marriage Sunday 2022 Bishop Robert Kasun, CSB will preside at a special Mass to honour married couples celebrating milestone anniversaries (25th, 40th, 50th, 60th or 60+) in 2022. The Mass will take place

Marriage Sunday - A Prayer for Married Couples

Father of life and love,
You created us in your image – woman and man.
We rejoice and thank you for the gift of each other.
Sustain us in our love
and lead us to a deeper understanding of your love.

Jesus, we come before you,
seeking your guidance and direction
in our relationship.

In marriage you call and challenge us
to a permanent, exclusive and sacred friendship.
Be our strength and support, therefore,
as we continue this journey together.

Holy Spirit, help us to strive towards a lasting,
honest commitment united in love.
Give us your strength to carry each other in times of darkness,
your joy in times of happiness,
and your gift of awe in the uniqueness and sacredness of each other.

May our love be a reflection and a sign of your love in the world.

It is time once again for the Friars' Student Writing Award. Students aged 13-19 are invited to submit a 450-500-word essay for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This year, the theme and the resources for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2022 have been prepared by the Middle East Council of Churches based in Beirut, Lebanon. The theme of the contest is: "We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him" (Mt. 2:2). The deadline for the contest is Feb 14 at 2 pm.

On the Lighter Side:

Q: What did the grape say when it was crushed?

A: Nothing, it just let out a little wine.

A man entered his home and was absolutely delighted when he discovered someone had stolen every lamp in the house.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Often, like Peter, we experience the disappointment of trying so hard and not seeing the desired results. But it is precisely that empty boat, the symbol of our incapacity, that becomes the pulpit from which Jesus proclaims the Word.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

When my niece was a baby, I watched her stare intently at people; as soon as she recognized them, she responded with absolute delight. Witnessing that one day, I realized that this is how God looks at us, watching us with absolute, enchanted delight. Let us reflect on how we view people around us, how we perceive the joys and dilemmas of life. Perhaps we should also ponder on how we see ourselves. We are born with unique gifts and qualities as well as deficiencies and flaws: which do you dwell on? We are created good; we are created in God's image and likeness. Seeing our goodness, of course, does not negate the necessity of conversion, of continuing growth. A friend of mine suggested a rewrite of our prayer during liturgy: O Lord, I'm as worthy as I can be today. Help me to continue to grow to be even more worthy tomorrow. Take a favourite photo of yourself; write under it "You are the temple of God." You are a temple, not a courthouse. We're made to respect and appreciate, not to judge and criticize.
