Thank you for last week's 2nd collection for Sharelife

Communion Reflection... So many lines penned by St. Paul are bumper-sticker worthy. This one works well in traffic: Drive... "in a manner worthy of the gospel." But who am I kidding? It works universally too. Pay your bills "in a manner worthy of the gospel." When irked, keep your good humour "in a manner worthy of the gospel." When your old friend tells you the same old story for the fourth time, listen "in a manner worthy..." This is a call for grace-filled living in all circumstances. Let's apply Paul's counsel to our Lenten activities. Whether we are praying more intentionally, or fasting, or giving gifts, whatever we do in this time of preparation, let's aim to live each day "in a manner worthy of the gospel."

We may know the special place that the patriarchs and matriarchs, from Abraham to Leah, played in God's plan of salvation for all people. But how could someone like me, as insignificant as I feel, possibly make a difference in carrying out God's plans and purposes? You may have heard the story of the child on the beach, picking up starfish stranded by the tide and throwing them back in the ocean. When a parent suggested it was foolish because there were so many, the child tossed one more into the waves and replied, "I made a difference for that one." We can't share God's light and love and saving grace with everyone. But we can be God's presence and make a life-saving difference for someone who is drowning in their guilt and shame, or is living in the depths of despair. We can point them to Christ, and invite them to live with us in God's marvellous and eternal light.

Have a Blessed Week!!

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Every time we offer a gift, we offer a little bit of our love along with it. That's why ingratitude is such a serious offense. It's not just the gift that's been rejected. Ingratitude not only wounds the gift giver, but affects the one who's receiving the gift, blinding them to the presence of others, which is dangerous territory. If you can't see others, soon enough you'll not see Jesus either. We don't often think of being thankful during Lent. But thanksgiving during Lent makes perfect sense. Why? Because each Lenten day, the cross upon which our Saviour died looms even larger. Each day in Lent brings us closer to the day when Jesus unleashed life upon the world. Jesus sent a whole lot of his love with this gift. We stand in awe of that kind of fierce, determined love and realize the Lord is dissolving our sometimes hard hearts to a thankfulness that looks quite a lot like tears.

Lenten Reconciliation Services
