Communion Reflection... Abraham and son Isaac carried wood, a knife and fire toward the place where they would make a sacrifice. They carried no animal, but the Lord provided the lamb. Throughout the Old Testament, God required his people to make many sacrifices of a lamb without blemish. Numbers 28 specifies daily, weekly and monthly sacrifices, plus other feasts. What was the purpose of so many burnt offerings? Hebrews 10:3-4 explains that the sacrifices were a constant reminder of sins but could not take them away. Only the sacrifice of Jesus, the Lamb without blemish, could take away sins. On the cross, "this he did once for all when he offered himself." During Lent and the Easter season, we humbly recall this outpouring of love. Through faith, we receive God's salvation bought, "with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without ...blemish."

Many Christian's feel there is little that they are qualified to do for Christ's mission. "When the gifts were passed out, I was passed by." However, all of us have been given a unique variety of gifts and abilities by our Creator. Some of them may seem more valuable or attract more attention. But no gift that God gives is useless. And no human being that God creates is worthless. In fact, each of us is worth so much to God that he was willing to do whatever it takes to bring us back into his family and kingdom. It meant that he himself, in the person of his Son, became the sacrificial lamb. God's plan for all of us is to combine our spiritual gifts and skills to form a magnificent mosaic, filled with the beauty of Christ's kindness, compassion and forgiveness.

“Whomever eats this bread lives forever”

Feast of the Divine Mercy The message of Divine Mercy is that God is Merciful. He is love itself poured out for us, and He wants no one to escape that merciful love. The message is that God wants us to turn to Him with trust and repentance while there is still time, before He comes as the just Judge. This turning with trust to Him who is Mercy itself is the only source of peace for mankind.

Turning to and imploring God’s mercy is the answer to this troubled world. There is no escaping that answer.

From the Pastor’s Desk

The testing of our faith in Jesus comes in all shaped and sizes. That testing isn’t arbitrary. God’s not picking on us. He’s protecting our most precious commodity—faith in the saving work of Jesus Christ. If we don’t have faith in Jesus as our risen Lord, our faith is useless. So it must be tested like gold in the fire. In the Old Testament, the Lord tested Jacob’s trust through an all night wrestling match. Would Jacob hold on or would he simply let go and give up? Through the testing, he became a stronger man. Wrestling is another word for struggling. Struggling comes in all shapes and sizes. Sometimes our struggles are rooted in the usual cast of characters: weakness, fear, anger, guilt, envy and pride. Other times we struggle to keep our eyes fasted upon Jesus, when it would be easier to follow all the other “stuff” of this world. Seeing Jesus on the cross, up close and personal, we become wiser and stronger than before.

“Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.” John 6:68

Please join me in praying for and congratulating the 4 man who will be ordained on Saturday May 14: Adam Pantaleo, Alexander D’Silva, Eduardo Lopez, Fraser McLaren

Thank You

To all who helped make Easter so special, especially our CWL and decorators, who worked so hard to decorate the Altars. Thank you for your prayers, and to our Musicians and Singers, Readers and Altar Servers, Knight’s of Columbus, Parking Control, for your financial support and most of all your presence joining us here to celebrate Easter.

~ Fr. Bob Glynn

Thank You! It is such a joy, each week, to have you with us as we gather as a family of God and pray confidently that we too may join Christ in the Resurrection. ~ Fr. Bob
