Communion Reflection... Whenever a group of children are playing outdoors and their mothers are gathered in the house near an open window, each mother can tell if a cry is coming from her individual child no matter how many are playing. Somehow the voices of the others are tuned out so only her child is heard. God loves and understands us better than any mother ever could. Sometimes we wonder if He loses our prayers amid the rest of the world's many petitions. God made the mothers who can tell their child's cry in a crowded yard. Listening to our prayers in a crowded world will not be any problem to God.

One thing which can disrupt our transformation into fully committed followers of Christ is the temptation to reject the way of the cross, which seems like foolishness to the people of the world, and return to our old, self-centered way of life. Our spiritual transformation takes off when we, prompted by God's Spirit and encouraged by mature believers, resist Satan's temptation to bail out, and get on board with our Lord's way of suffering and sacrifice. As we take up our cross daily and follow Christ in faith, we are acknowledging our Lord as the true pilot of our life, rather than just the flight attendant or the co-pilot. It will still be a bumpy ride at times, as we travel through our life in this world. But as God's spirit helps us soar above the clouds of guilt and shame, we will experience in a new way the sunshine of Christ's love and grace and mercy. And no matter how much turbulence we encounter on our journey, we will safely reach our destination. Jesus, Saviour, pilot us through all of the turbulence of life, all the way from here to eternity.

Pope Francis @Pontifex The Gospel sets us in motion, and drives us to open up to God and our brothers. It is just like fire: while it warms us with God's love, it wants to burn our selfishness, enlighten the dark sides of life, consume the false idols that enslave us.

It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. Next meeting: Wed. Sept 7 at 7:30 pm.

Today's Quote: God is the arm that will hold you at your weakest..the eye that will see you at your darkest..and the heart that will love you at your worst.

On the Lighter Side: If cheetahs ran the world, everyone would be sleek and quick but economically there would be struggles. Why? Because Cheetahs never prosper.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

Feast of the Black Madonna

Our Lady of Czestochowa, the "Black Madonna" dates back to the time of the Twelve Apostles, painted by the hand of St. Luke the Evangelist, who used a tabletop from a table built by Jesus during his time as a carpenter. While Luke was painting Mary, she recounted to him the events in the life of Jesus that would eventually be used in his Gospel * 326 AD St. Helen finds the image of Our Lady and gifts it to her son Constantine, who builds a shrine to venerate it. * The image eventually falls to the care of Charlemagne, who presents it to Prince Leo of Ruthenia (northwest Hungary). * 14th century the image is transferred to Jasna Gora in Poland as an answer to a request made in a dream of Prince Ladislaus of Opola. * 1382 Tartars invaded the Prince's fortress. During the attack an arrow strikes the painting and gets lodged in the neck. The prince flees with the painting during the night stopping in the town of Czestochowa. The painting is placed in a small church, where the prince builds a Pauline monastery and church to ensure its safety. * 1430 Hussites overrun the monastery, attempting to take the image. One of the looters takes the painting, puts it in a wagon and tries to drive away. The horses refuse to move, he strikes the painting twice with his sword, on his third attempt to strike it, he suddenly falls over writhing in pain and dies. * 1655 Poland is almost overrun by King Charles X of Sweden, only the area surrounding the monastery remains unconquered. The monks who live there are somehow able to defend the portrait throughout a 40 day siege. Poland is eventually able to drive out the invaders. King John II Casimir Vasa crowns the image of Our Lady of Czestochowa as Queen of Poland, placing the entire country under her care and protection. * 1920, Russia attempts to invade Poland, with the Russian army gathering on the banks of the Vistula and threatening Warsaw, they see an image of Our Lady in the clouds over the city, and withdraw. * Since the fall of Communism, many people from all over the world flock to Czestochowa on pilgrimages. * July 2016 Pope Francis visits Poland, venerates the image and says Mass. * The nickname "Black Madonna" comes from the soot residue which discolours the painting as a result of centuries of votive lights and candles burned in front of it.
