Communion Reflection...

As we rush around day in and day out in our busy lives, whom do we notice around us? Or consider: whom or what do we actually acknowledge when we watch the news? Are we so self-absorbed in our endeavours that we can't be bothered to think about anyone else? Or maybe we do think beyond ourselves, but only to our friends and family. Yet all around us and around the world, people hurt. Some go without the basic necessities. They live on islands of loneliness, convinced no one cares. To be Christian is to notice these people and respond in love. What can I do to really notice and respond to the needs of others? It doesn't have to be a grand gesture, and it might begin as a virtuous habit to live for others more often.

Even in the story of the Fall in the Garden of Eden, God provides a "way out" for his creations whom he loves. In God's words to the serpent and the woman, there is a promise that the offspring of the woman would crush the head of the serpent: Jesus' triumph over the power of the devil. It is a testimony to God's love that he would create—knowing we would sin over and over again—and still make our salvation part of his plan. God's compassion came to us in innocence of the Christ Child: born to show us how to love, born to die for our sins.

Have a wonderful week!!

Ash Wednesday - Wed. Feb. 22nd

Ash Services R.F. Hall School Cafeteria morning.
Mass and Ashes St. Cornelius School.

Mass with Ashes 7 pm at St. John's Church

Stations of the Cross will begin

Fri. Feb. 24 A great Lenten devotion every Friday during Lent, 7 pm at St. John's Church.

Q: Why do we get ashes on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday?

A: The ancient Jews, wearing sackcloth and covering themselves or sitting in ashes, showed repentance and humility. The early Church adopted the practice of wearing ashes at the start of Lent to show repentance too. As the priest places the ashes on our foreheads, he says, "Remember you are dust and unto dust you will return" to remind us that our time on earth will pass away, but our life in Heaven will last forever.

Fasting and Abstinence are practices of self-denial that help a person to focus on the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of others. They also clear the mind and body for deeper contemplation in prayer.

Days of fasting: Ash Wednesday, Feb 22
Good Friday, April 7

Fasting requirements: One full or two light meatless meals; no eating between meals, but liquids are permitted.

Age of fasting: All persons between 18 and 59.

Days of abstinence: Ash Wednesday and
All Fridays during Lent

Abstinence requirements: No Meat.

Age of abstinence: All persons over the age of 14. No Catholic should fail to keep these days of required penance unless he or she has a serious reason for not observing them. The obligation on any individual day is not a question of serious sin. You may ask what penances we would suggest? The best idea during Lent is daily participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Try to be more patient with members of your own family and with persons working with you. Yes, abstaining from alcoholic beverages, smoking, candy, movies and TV programs gives so many opportunities for other penances. Above all, don't forget to say every morning as you open your eyes: "All for you, my Jesus, all for you!" Renew this intention often during the day. Try these few suggestions and we promise you that you will be a very different person at the end of the 40 day period which we call LENT.

Dynamic Catholic will email you short inspirational videos, and practical tips.

Confirmation classes for those who are not attending St. Cornelius School will begin Apr 4. Deadline for registration is Mar 12. Applications available at the back of the church.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged.

For many people, Family Day long weekend puts a priority on spending time with family. We look forward to spending more time laughing and sharing joy with the people we care about the most. Family can be an occasion for great joy. Yet, in the Christian plan of salvation, Jesus' coming is the beginning of a new type of family. In the offering of his flesh and blood, he invited all of us to become one body in him. This is no mere metaphor: we actually share in one life with Christ and with one another. This means I have the responsibility to reach out to help others because they are my family—and more than my family—one body in Christ! This means that I can count on Christ's help in innumerable ways through the prayers and help of my fellow family members.

A Prayer for Families

Lord God, we lift up our families to you today, praying for your presence in our lives. Give us the strength to face everything that we are facing and the grace to handle anything that comes our way. As we trust you, bring us closer to each other and closer to you.
