Communion Reflection... How do you suppose John knew who Jesus was, the "Lamb of God"? Was it in the way Jesus walked with a steady confidence heading in John's direction? Or maybe it was the way Jesus looked at John with eyes of understanding and love... the way he looks at us. Nevertheless, John knew it was time for his disciples to take their eyes off him and put their eyes on Jesus, who would take away the sin of the world. What John told his disciples to do seems critically important for us still today, namely, focus on the One that really matters in this life: "The Lamb of God," Jesus. Jesus, the "Good Shepherd," comes to fill our hearts with faith to see what John saw, so that we begin to follow Jesus into the heavenly sanctuary of our Heavenly Father.

It's difficult for me to envision what all took place at Jesus' trial. He is beaten, whipped, spit upon, lied to and about, and yet "he did not open his mouth." Had it been me, I would have been kicking and screaming, "You have the wrong man! I want a lawyer?" Well, they did have the wrong man. It should have been me on trial that day. It should have been me being slapped, whipped and beaten. It should have been me crucified on that hill Friday night. Instead it was Jesus who looks down from the cross and, when he finally does open his mouth to speak, tells me he loves me. "Father, forgive him," he says. And I believe him. Now it's my turn to open my mouth and tell his story. Lord, open my lips and my mouth will declare your praise.

Fasting and Feasting... Lent is more than a time of fasting, it can also be a joyous season of feasting. Lent is a time to fast from certain things, and to feast on others...

Fast from judging others, Feast on the Christ dwelling in them. Fast from emphasis on differences, Feast on the unity of life. Fast from darkness, Feast on the light. Fast from thoughts of illness, Feast on the healing power of God. Fast from words that pollute, Feast on words that purify. Fast from discontent, Feast on gratitude. Fast from anger, Feast on patience. Fast from pessimism, Feast on optimism. Fast from worry, Feast on gratitude.

People who have positions of power and authority at work or in society may be tempted to pull rank or bully others in order to get their way. But when power and authority are abused, it often leads to resentment and conflict. What a potent example Jesus gives of the power of powerlessness. He emptied himself of his divine prerogatives and took the form of a servant in order to fully bear his cross of suffering and humiliation. His powerlessness on the dark Friday was soon followed by his powerful victory over the powers of sin and death and Satan. What a compelling witness it is to God's transforming love when his redeemed people put aside the prerogatives of their power and authority, and take on the form of a servant. As we show kindness and compassion to those under our authority, we are able to point them to the divine source of all mercy and truth. That's the power of powerlessness.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers.
