Communion Reflection... The religious leaders knew well the prophecies of the Messiah. They should have realized that they fit Jesus to a T. But they dismissed that notion as foolishness. Three times Jesus told his disciples that he must suffer and die and rise again. And yet on Easter morning, they dismissed the testimony of the faith-filled women as nonsense. On Easter afternoon, the Emmaus disciples were clueless as to who was walking beside them. These days, even some people who consider themselves to be followers of Jesus dismiss the heart of the cross' message about sin and salvation as being merely symbolic or even foolishness. However, the cross of Christ reveals to us the heart of God's love and power and wisdom. It doesn't just show us the way. The message of the cross is the way to glory everlasting, by faith in the One who turned away the wrath of God against our sin, so that we might live with him forever.

I'm not all that steady on my feet these days. I know I'm getting old. I find that often I have to grab hold of things to keep my balance. I used to go walking until I discovered the ruts along the walkway seemed to be reaching out to trip me up. Or maybe the ruts are less to blame than my own unwillingness to admit I need help. I also lean on Jesus more as my physical limitations have reminded me how much I need my Saviour. My legs may not be as strong as they once were, but even with that, I still have Jesus. He's always there to catch me with his grace and forgiveness.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Why are people of faith so often drawn to the cross of Christ? When we come to the cross with our troubled and broken hearts, we not only see a tortured and broken body, but also a broken heart that yearns for our restoration and reconciliation. We are pained by all of our wrongs and failures that made His sacrifice necessary. And yet we know that He is lifted there because it's the only way that our brokenness and the broken hearts of the world could be healed. As we stand beneath the cross of Jesus, our heart is drawn to the plight of the lost and broken people all around us and all around the world. Our heart aches and breaks for them. And we are moved by God's boundless love for all of his broken people to offer the healing touch of Christ's mercy and love through our caring words and actions, as well as our generous support of those who are on the front line of restoration and reconciliation.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers.
