Communion Reflection... The apostles could not have imagined the pain Jesus would endure in the coming hours: arrested, tried, flogged and crucified. You've undoubtedly known pain too. Think about a joint replacement, or perhaps another medical procedure, or the searing loss of a loved one. The pain seems unbearable at first. Then you work through physical therapy, and you can walk better than you have in years. You ache with longing for your spouse, sibling or good friend who died. Then, with time, the photos and videos bring you smiles, not tears, and you become grateful for the lessons you learned from them—and resolves to pay it forward. Jesus' trust in the Almighty brought him through his Passion to win the hope of eternal life for us.

Jesus is risen! Alleluia! He is alive! These are the words we speak and sing today after 40 days of repentance, penance, service and prayer. Today the Church—like the tomb—opens back up. Easter Sunday is more than another milestone moment in the life of Christ. It is our second chance and reason for our faith. Today our hope for something more-beyond the veil of this world— comes into view. Today the story of Jesus' resurrection becomes the awesome and irreplaceable moment in our journey towards God. We are no longer slaves to sin and death because the gates of heaven have been thrown open wide. And it's all free. It's all grace. Today, live in the world with the kind of joy and hope that will encourage others to ask "why?"

An Easter Celebration

Easter morning, shining light,
 From the tomb a glorious sight,
 Angels rolled the rock away.
 “Jesus is alive!” they say.
 Forty days have quickly passed.
 Now the story’s done at last.
 Jesus rose to die no more,
 Throwing open heaven’s door.
 Run with Mary, tell your friends,
 Give them joy that has no end.
 “Celebrate in all you do.
 Jesus gave His life for you.”

On Easter, our thoughts often turn to heaven. However, we often think of heaven as this less-than-real place. Call it “heaven-lite.” Why? Maybe because we cannot imagine anything weightier or more real than sickness, doubt, pain, betrayal, discord. The effects of sin are weighty, crushing even! But why should our “less-than-real” ideas about heaven dominate us, when the biblical description is very real? After he was raised on the first Easter, Jesus passed through the locked door of the room where the disciples were—not because he wasn’t as real as the door, but because he was actually even more real than the door. He walked through that door as we walk through fog. The disciples thought he was a ghost until he ate with them. He showed them that he was real and risen. Jesus is real for us today on this Easter too, and he is alive for each of us. Jesus the Real One, has prepared a real place for us in his Father’s house. If it were not so, he would have told us. Christ has risen from the tomb to walk with us there, one solid footstep at a time.

What is Easter?

AFTER JESUS WAS IN THE GRAVE FOR THREE DAYS, HE DEFEATED THE STING OF DEATH, AROSE FROM THE TOMB, AND GAVE US EVERLASTING LIFE.

Happy Easter!
