Vocations... The Good Shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them. Is He asking you to help others to find Him? Pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life, especially for our archdiocese, that God will raise up good shepherds in our midst. If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

First Holy Communions

Please pray for our young people who will be receiving their First Holy Communion during April and May.

"Whoever eats this bread lives forever"

If you want to add or remove someone to our sick list or prayers for the deceased - call 905-880-0080.

Communion Reflection... We know how final death is. But Jesus' ultimate triumph over death came on the day he defeated death forever. Jesus arose from the grave victorious over the power of death. Facing the harsh reality and finality of death can never be the same when we truly believe the Easter miracle. The sting of death will still burn like fire when a loved one is taken from us. But we can go on living for Jesus in the midst of our heartache and heartbreak, because we know that death was defeated for us, by him who is the resurrection and the life, the One who conquered death forever.

"I'll see you when you get back," she yelled to her husband as he roared off on his motorcycle. But tragically, he never came back alive. We may say it casually to a friend of loved one: "I'll see you again." And we usually do. But sometimes a devastating illness or tragedy shatters our earthly bonds. And we may not even have a chance to say goodbye. However, in our time of sorrow and despair, there is genuine consolation and hope. "Because I live," Jesus promised, "you will also live." We who live by faith in the Christ of Cavalry and the empty tomb will see him again, when it is our turn to leave the bonds of earth and rise to life eternal.

2nd Collection for ShareLife. ShareLife Sunday and the World Day of Prayer for Vocations When you support ShareLife, you help educate our future priests. This past year, you invested in our Church's future by supporting 58 seminarians at St. Augustine's Seminary and Redemptoris Mater Missionary Seminary. Thus far we have raised $10,940 toward our goal. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate. Thank you for supporting ShareLife!

Our Goal for 2023: $ 45,500

Please give generously.

EDGE EDGE is a catholic ministry for Gr.'s 5, 6, 7 AND 8. Join us April 30th at 1 pm at St. John's Church. For more info, email youthministrycaledoneast@gmail.com. This is a great opportunity for our youth to have something for themselves in our parish family. Hope to see you there!!!

The students at RF HALL are collecting sock for the homeless and donating them to the Good Shepherd. The socks will keep feet warm, dry and protected. In previous years 8760 pairs of socks have been collected. Can we break the record this year?? Donations of new socks can be dropped off at the church by Apr 30.

During the month of May special focus is placed on devotions, such as the Rosary. The Rosary will be prayed before all Masses and crowning of Mary by the children will take place at every weekend Mass.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

Church Bulletin Advertising Liturgical Publications will be setting up the advertisements for our church bulletin. The advertising will begin June 2023 & supports the bulletin service. Pope Francis @Pontifex... God's gaze never stops with our past filled of errors, but looks with infinite confidence at what we can become.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

FROM THE PASTOR The history of humanity might be summed up this way: God does something good; we return the favour, followed by God returning our favour. God creates the heavens and the earth for us. We wanted more. God returned the favour by keeping the lights on and the water running. God spoke indirectly through his prophets. We didn't like their downer messages, so we killed them. God returned the favour by sending his Son. Jesus sat down at the table offering his very body and blood, while we plotted to betray him. Jesus returned the favour by breaking the bread, and saying, "This is my body, given for you." Jesus told us he would pay the severe cost for our sins. We told him not to bother, "We got this!" He returned the favour by receiving the nails. Jesus said he's rise on the third day. We stayed shut up in a tomb with our four walls and a locked door. Jesus returned the favour by saying, "Mary!"— on the third day.

"Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." John 6:68 Please join me in praying for and congratulating the 8 man who will be ordained on Saturday May 13: Sávio António Bruto da Costa, Mirko Ljuba, Carlos Alberto Torres Marquez, Matthew Cole Powers, and Sean Raphael Jacob from the Archdiocese of Toronto; Michael Chris El-Nachef from the Archdiocese of Ottawa-Cornwall; and Peter Long Hien Tran and Joseph Son Quang Do.

We invite all parishioners to join in celebrating Catholic Education Week 2023, which runs from April 30 - May 5. For more than 165 years, Ontario's publicly funded Catholic schools have been integrating our faith into all aspects of school life, nurturing the gifts and talents of every student. We celebrate the distinctive contribution that Catholic schools provide, giving thanks and offering our prayers for all those who faithfully journey with our young people each day.
