Communion Reflection... On January 30, 1986, millions of school children watched the memorial service for Christa McAuliffe, the teacher and astronaut who died in the Challenger Space Shuttle disaster. The most comfort and hope that the cleric offered to the grieving was to say that she would live on in our memories. St. Paul, however, offers genuine and lasting comfort and hope. Jesus does not merely live on in our memories. Paul assures us that Jesus was truly raised from the dead, victorious over the power of death and the grave, our hope in Christ is real. God is alive! Our Easter faith gives us a lifelong mission—to proclaim to all people that death does not have the last word. Because Jesus lives, we can confidently face every day with the promise of eternity as our true hope.

Those who know us best are in the best position to betray us. They know the stuff that will hurt us most. It's the deepest cut. But betrayals aren't the worst thing; our natural responses to them are. Those who knew Jesus best were in the best possible position to betray him. One did. The betrayal caused unbelievable pain and heartache. And yet there was no bitterness, payback or anger from Jesus. No denial, cowardice, betrayal or political machination will keep Jesus from his appointed mission: to love us to the end.

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thank you for keeping warmth and hospitality alive and well. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

FROM THE PASTOR Faithful women followed Jesus through his ministry and provided for his needs. They walked with him on “the way of sorrows,” from Pilate’s palace to Calvary. They remained at the cross throughout those agonizing hours. They saw him breath his final breath. Their hearts were broken with grief beyond belief. The One who had raised the dead was now dead. Once the Sabbath was past, they would return to anoint his body and at least give him a proper burial. Many of us have had our hearts broken with grief beyond belief. We have wept at the grave side of loved ones. But in the midst of our deepest sorrow, we know by faith that there is a new and glorious life beyond the grave. Death still stings like fire. But no matter how long our Sabbath of grief may last, we have the confident assurance that “death has been swallowed up in victory.”

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Faith was passed down from generation to generation through life, through witnesses who brought the flame of the Gospel, the joy of the saving love of Jesus, and the hope of his promise. Faith grows through witness.

These funds are passed on to the Holy Father for immediate response in countries stricken by war, famine and natural disasters.
