Vocations... "You are in the spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you." Is the Spirit leading you or someone you know to ministerial service? If God is calling you, to the priesthood, diaconate, or consecrated life, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

Teacher Candidates... The Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board requires all teacher applicants to submit a pastoral portfolio/reference when applying for a teaching position. It is the responsibility of the candidate to attend Sunday liturgy, be involved in parish life and contact the parish priest well in advance. Teacher candidates who are attending school out of the local area are also responsible to give the pastor advance notice. The pastor cannot complete the form if he does not know the applicant. For further info, please pick up a Teacher Reference Form Pamphlet at the back of the church. Leave your form at the office for the Pastor's review.

If you wish to donate via online banking e-mail campaign@archtoronto.org with Your name, Address, Parish name, Municipality. Thank you for your generosity!!

If you want to add or remove someone to our sick list or prayers for the deceased - call 905-880-0080.

Communion Reflection... A preschool aged boy was eating an apple in the back seat of the car. "Daddy," he said, "why is my apple turning brown?" The boys father explained, "Because after you ate the skin off, the meat of the apple came in contact with the air, which caused it to oxidize, thus changing its molecular structure and turning it into a different colour." There was a long silence, and then the boy asked, "Daddy, are you talking to me?" Jesus is talking to us. Thankfully, he speaks in a language that we can understand. Jesus keeps it simple. Do you want to know how to live in this world? Simple: treat others as you wish to be treated. Who can't understand that? Unfortunately, we often live as if those words were incomprehensible. They are not. Keep life simple; do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

From the Pastor

There is nothing like a humble heart. We may sin and sin gravely, but a humble, contrite spirit touches God's mercy. God desires to forgive and restore us to his love and friendship. Yet pride and hardness of heart act as a roadblock. Now is a good time to humbly turn to God and seek his forgiveness. Confession may be just the place to begin. Father, I can fool myself sometimes. I can think that I am pretty good, or at least better than most. I realize how foolish that is. If I have avoided any sin, it is because of your grace. I want to admit my brokenness. I come before you, seeking forgiveness. Forgive me so that I may return to you wholeheartedly.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

On July 22 the St. Francis Centre will be hosting a one day retreat to reflect on St. Mary Magdalene, the repentant sinner who found forgiveness and friendship with our Lord, who stood faithfully at the foot of the cross, who saw the risen Lord, and who became the prototype for all those who would eventually follow Jesus. Join Fr. Pierre and the rest of the Franciscan priests as they reflect on this marvellous saint chosen by Christ. Registration begins at 8:30 am, cost is $ 40 at the door. Call 519-941-1747 to reserve your spot.

A special thank you to Victor Martins for weeding the back parking lot.

Are you replacing your stove? Is it under 10 years old? If you are looking to update your appliances and want to donate your old one, please call us at 905-880-0080 and we will be happy to pick them up.

Pope Francis @Pontifex A prophet is a living sign who points God out to others, a reflection of Christ's light on the path of the brothers and sisters, someone who helps others read the present under the action of the Holy Spirit, to understand God's plans and correspond to them.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

An orphan boy was living in Paris at the end of WWII. All alone, he had to scrounge the city as best he could to find food, clothes, and shelter. Most everyone was experiencing desperation.

Years before, he had heard someone talk about God and even Jesus. But with the hell on earth that the war had brought into his life, he had long since lost what little faith he had. One cold morning, he stopped outside the window of a small bakery. His stomach ached from the smell of the fresh bread. He was so absorbed in the moment outside the bakery window that he didn't realize an American soldier had come up and was watching him. He hardly noticed it when the GI walked past him into the store. He did, however, notice the large bag the baker was filling for the GI will rolls, breads and pastries. And the boy could hardly breathe when the soldier exited the shop, knelt down and handed him the bag. He looked at the GI with astonishment and gratefulness. Finally, he asked the question that was running through his mind: "Mister, are you Jesus?" People today still long to see Jesus. We are to be Jesus to others. As St. Teresa of Calcutta counseled: do small acts of kindness with great love. This is what the world waits to see. We will show them Jesus by our love.
