Communion Reflection... The local evening new may call itself "Eyewitness News," focusing on eyewitness accounts at the scene. John was there at the cross as an eyewitness, along with the faithful women. He saw the soldiers pierce Jesus' side and witnessed the flow of blood and water. He also observed Jesus' graveclothes lying there neatly folded, as if Jesus had vanished into thin air. Later, John recorded many of the words of Jesus he had heard, as well as detailed descriptions of events he had witnessed. Near the close of his Gospel, he testified about the central purpose of the Scriptures: "These are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name." Holy Spirit, we thank you for inspiring the biblical writers to record your Word for all time, and for assuring us that "these words are trustworthy and true."

Countless times, we have promised to be faithful to Jesus. But when the pressure was on or temptation came alluring, our faith faltered, and we denied Jesus with our lips or our lives. We may wonder if Jesus still loves us and if he can forgive our failures to be faithful. Jesus' response leaves no doubt. Surely he will fully forgive us and equip us for faithful and fruitful service in his kingdom. Jesus, we are so grateful that you continue to love us and forgive us, no matter how often we fail you.

The ROAD

The road to success is not straight. There is a curve called Failure, a loop called Confusion, speed bumps called Friends, red lights called Enemies, caution lights called Family. You will have flats called Jobs. But, if you have a spare called Determination, an engine called Perseverance, insurance called Faith, a driver named Jesus, you will make it to a place called Success.

Reconciliation/1st Communion & Confirmation

Applications for candidates wishing to celebrate the Sacraments of Reconciliation & First Communion and Confirmation will be available soon!!

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John's and St. Cornelius Parish. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church and on our website. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date. Next meeting: Wed. Sept 6 at 7:30 pm.

Pope Francis @Pontifex Love alone extinguishes hatred. Love alone ultimately triumphs over injustice. Love alone makes room for others. Love alone is the path towards full communion among us.

Welcome new parishioners who have moved into our parish boundaries! To be a registered member of our parish is to have a sense of belonging to a Community of Faith.

Registration is necessary when seeking reference letters, eligibility for the sacraments and any other documentation; such as, tax receipts and so on!!! Please introduce yourself/family to the Pastor and register as soon as possible by picking up any set of 2023 envelopes at the entrance. Please fill in the front for the first month's donations so that the information may be registered. - Fr. Bob

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

St. Martin of Tours lived in the 5th Century. He was a soldier and after his conversion became a monk, hermit and then bishop. While a soldier, Martin was confronted by a cold, shivering beggar. His heart was moved with compassion. With his sword, he divided his cloak and gave away half to the man. That night he dreamed of Christ, who was wearing the piece of cloak he'd given away. Martin decided to become a Christian. St. Teresa of Calcutta often recited Mahatma Gandhi's words: "he who serves the poor, serves God." Just as much as the poor need us, we need them. They allow us to serve Christ. Don't miss an opportunity to help the poor. Christ will bless you for it.

The Archdiocese of Toronto together with the Syriac Catholic Church invites you to a special Mass on the occasion of the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees. The Archdiocese of Toronto celebrates the feast day of our archdiocesan patron, St. Michael, on Fri Sept 29. All are welcome to join in a special celebration at 5:30 pm at St. Michael's Cathedral (65 Bond St.) Archbishop Francis Leo will celebrate mass, music from the world renowned St. Michael's Choir School. As part of the celebration, the Apostolic Nuncio to Canada, the Most Rev. Ivan Jurkovic will confer the pallium on our archbishop, a symbol of his role as Metropolitan Archbishop of Toronto and shepherd to the faithful. Following Mass, there will be an informal reception with light refreshments in the Cathedral atrium and courtyard. All are welcome to join in this special celebration for our archdiocese and archbishop!
