Communion Reflection... It's said that when we wish to communicate, we use words. When God wants to communicate, he takes his words and hangs flesh and blood on it. And what is that Word? It is Jesus. In the Incarnation, God's living Son takes human form, not just to tell us of God's love but to reveal God's love. And that's just the beginning. We would think that the Incarnation would be revealed in holy fanfare. That the Christ would come in power, not poverty; in a crown, not a cross; in glory not in the dust of a manger. No crown. No glory. God's unconditional love is revealed in the cross of Christ, so that in that cross, we might discover the gift of life and love that keeps on giving through you and me.

"New birth." "Living hope." Those are the words that bring new meaning to life... when we find that life in Jesus. I've heard it said: "If Jesus isn't real, nothing matters; if Jesus is real, nothing else matters." St. Paul put it this way: "For me to live is Christ..." Jesus didn't just die, rise up again and leave us behind. Jesus died, rose again and came back to life for us. He came to breathe his life into us, to give us a new birth and living hope that no one could ever take away. Dear Heavenly Father, now when I hear the "happy birthday" song sung may it forever remind me of the day I was given new life in your Son.

Please pray for peace and especially the people of Ukraine; join us in saying a Hail Mary every day.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd. Last week the Good Shepherd picked up 83 chilies and 20 frozen meals.

A diner at an upscale restaurant says to the waiter, "We've been waiting for a while for our meal." The waiter explains: "This isn't McDonald's; good food takes time to prepare." The diner stays put and says no more. Since the day of human rebellion, God began preparing to bring peace to those who thought they did not want to be created in his image. Some examples of this type of preparation time in the Bible include a faith based community formed from a former idol worshipper (Abraham), slaves freed through a man who first balked at the job (Moses), and commandments revealing God's character sent. Then in a dazzling series of events, the "main course" is presented: Emmanuel arriving in real time, three years encountering a suffering people, a ride into town, a final rejection endured, and personal invitations sent to the four corners of the earth. We might complain: "What's taking so long?" But Jesus, says, "Look at your plate; I'm right in front of you." We should stay put and rejoice.
