Communion Reflection... Do you ever get tired of people telling you what to do? Do you ever argue or complain about that? All those chores and reminders can get old. So can giving out all those reminders! This week, see if there's something you can start doing without a reminder. Try to do it without arguing or complaining. It might feel a little strange at first. Complaining can be a bad habit—one that dims our light a little. If we ask, though, Jesus can help us break that habit and shine a little brighter in the world. Dear Jesus, help me to stop complaining and to be grateful for what I have.

Jesus sent his followers to live as he taught. He sent them to tell the whole world about him. The disciples were only human though.

They made mistakes. They didn't always agree with each other. They weren't perfect, but Christ made them to carry his light into the world anyway. Christ calls us to share his light too. Living as children of light means doing what is good and right and true—for God, for others and for ourselves. Before we begin our Lenten season, let us reflect on some of the practical ways we can carry the light of Christ with us wherever we go, not just during these coming 40 days, but for the rest of the year as well.

Marriage Sunday - A Prayer for Married Couples

Father of life and love,
 You created us in your image – woman and man.
 We rejoice and thank you for the gift of each other.
 Sustain us in our love
 and lead us to a deeper understanding of your love.
 Jesus, we come before you,
 seeking your guidance and direction
 in our relationship.
 In marriage you call and challenge us
 to a permanent, exclusive and sacred friendship.
 Be our strength and support, therefore,
 as we continue this journey together.
 Holy Spirit, help us to strive towards a lasting,
 honest commitment united in love.
 Give us your strength to carry each other
 in times of darkness,
 your joy in times of happiness,
 and your gift of awe in the uniqueness
 and sacredness of each other.
 May our love be a reflection and a sign of your love in the world.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Think of a time when you lost something important to you – maybe it was a special object or a set of keys. Did you feel worried or desperate? Did you tear the house apart, turning over cushions and checking under the bed? Now think of a time when you found something important to you. Did you feel flooded with relief and joy? Did you hug the item close and thank God that you had it back? Sometimes, we are the one who are lost. Sometimes we wander away from God. It's easy to picture God being angry when we do. We might even imagine him frowning, tapping his foot and checking his watch to see if we'll ever be back. But what if God actually misses us instead? What if he's eager for us to return? What if he's overjoyed when we do. God loves us. When we turn back to him, he is always ready to welcome us home.
