Communion Reflection... God does not want us to live in fear and anxiety. Because of the pressures of life, we often worry about our health, family, and finances. These worries wear us down. The Lord wishes us to live in peace and confidence, for God is with us. When you find yourself overcome with fear and anxiety turn to the Lord. Place your life in God's hands. Heavenly Father, I want to live in peace, but too often I find my heart riddled with tension and anxiety. I am scared, anxious, and concerned about so many things. I know I should trust you, but it is not always easy to control my feelings. Please, Father, in these anxious moments reassure me with your words.

A man went to the hospital for a complete physical, very depressed, and said to the doctor, "I look in the mirror and see that I'm a mess. My jowls are sagging. I have blotches all over my face. My hair is falling out. I feel ugly. What is it?" The doctor said, "I don't know what it is, but your eyesight is perfect." Not one of us is perfect. To varying degrees we are all sick, handicapped, and infirm. We all have our hurts and pains, for life breaks all of us down. In Jesus, we find not only healing but also strength to go on. Rather than wasting our time and energies on the false hopes of the world, seek the peace of Christ. Within all of us, there is a hunger for wholeness, a longing that only Jesus can satisfy.

Vocations... Unless a seed first dries out and dies, it cannot be planted in the earth to grow. Unless we die to our selfish ways, we cannot expect to be people who will "lay down their lives for their friends." If you think God is calling you to lay down your life as a priest, religious or deacon for His Church, call Fr. Facilitated by Yasmin Rizzi, as part of her Healing Health Ministry. This program provides Hope and Comfort in times of despair and grief. At times we may struggle with grief and loss, it is in knowing, when 2-3 are gathered in the Lord's presence, his healing touch will strengthen and comfort us. We also welcome those that have journeyed through the grief process and are able to be a compassionate and empathetic presence within our group. Come to one session or to all, you are welcome at any time, this is a safe and confidential caring space for the main emotions that loss creates. New sessions will begin on Thurs., April 4th and will run for 6 weeks, times: 1-3 PM and/or 6:30-8:30 PM depending on the number of participants. Please RSVP to stjohnshealingministry@gmail.com Confirmation of times will then be announced.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Hungry people count on Good Shepherd's meals—and thanks to community support, we keep faith with them. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Each of us is like a grain of wheat planted by God. Just as a grain of wheat must die so as to produce a harvest, so we must die to self in order to bear the fruits of love. This dying to self is a gradual process and happens in little ways. Every act of humility involves dying to pride. Every act of courage involves dying to cowardice. Every act of kindness involves dying to cruelty. Every act of love involves dying to selfishness. Thus the false self dies, and the true self, made in God's image, is born and nurtured. It is by giving that we receive; it is by forgiving that we are forgiven; it is by dying that we are born to eternal life.

For those people who ordered Lilies through the CWL, Lilies will be delivered Mar 30 and placed at the Altars of St. John's and St. Cornelius.

St. Cornelius will decorate Good Friday after the 11:30am Eucharistic Service.
