Deacon Silverio Fidalgo

All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob

A Special thank you to the Knight's of Columbus for hosting the Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

Forty Lenten days of living "in grace": Each day in the desert took courage and a deep desire to abide in God's love. We undertook the Lenten journey with self-assurance, resolute in sharing Christ's suffering. Yet, there were days when temptation made mincemeat of our desire to surrender even the simplest sacrifices. On days like those, we must trust in God's grace to perfect us because of our weakness. With Christ's power, human weakness becomes a gift instead of a burden, enabling us to ask for God's help and live "in grace."

Communion Reflection... At first glance, the two themes for this Sunday seem incompatible. How do you correlate the joy and celebration of Jesus' triumphant procession into Jerusalem with the harsh realities of the passion rearing, where we see his tortured body hanging with outstretched arms on that cruel cross? On that joyous Palm Sunday, Jesus was met with shouts of "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!" But his kingly throne was not to be in Jerusalem. Five days later, inscribed on his triumphant cross were the fitting words, "This is the King of the Jews." Ironically, that tortuous cross was Jesus' true and glorious throne—and the source of our eternal joy. Because he willingly bore the crown of sin and shame, we who look with faith to the crucified Christ will receive the crown of life. What a glorious day it will be when we meet the King of Kings, seated on his glorious throne!

Holy Thursday On this day, Jesus offered the very first Mass, fed His followers for the first time with the Holy Eucharist and ordained the first priests. He showed the depth of His love by washing the feet (the act of a servant) of His apostles, and urged us to do the same. After Mass on this night, we take time to adore Jesus in the Eucharist and thank Him for His great love.

Good Friday Because of the wonderful act of love that Jesus performed, giving His life that we might all be able to live forever in His kingdom of love, peace and grace. We kiss the cross and try to understand why anyone would care so much about us.

Holy Saturday Also known as “Holy.” Tonight, those who have been preparing to become Christian accept Baptism and Confirmation. On this night we keep watch for the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead and sing the first “Gloria” and “Alleluias” of the Easter Season. We ring the bells to announce the Resurrection and the promise of new life. We all renew the vows of our Baptisms. May each of these days be special to us. May we each be prepared through Penance to receive the new life promised us by Christ. And may the Good Shepherd bless our parish family with special love and peace.

Facilitated by Yasmin Rizzi, as part of her Healing Health Ministry. This program provides Hope and Comfort in times of despair and grief. At times we may struggle with grief and loss, it is in knowing, when 2-3 are gathered in the Lord's presence, his healing touch will strengthen and comfort us. We also welcome those that have journeyed through the grief process and are able to be a compassionate and empathetic presence within our group. Come to one session or to all, you are welcome at any time, this is a safe and confidential caring space for the main emotions that loss creates. New sessions will begin on Thurs., April 4th and will run for 6 weeks, times: 1-3 PM and/or 6:30-8:30 PM depending on the number of participants. Please RSVP to stjohnshealingministry@gmail.com Confirmation of times will then be announced.

Stations of the Cross A great Lenten devotion every Friday during Lent, 7 pm at St. John's Church.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

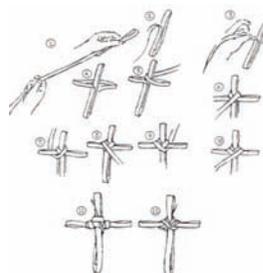

During the next seven days, we complete our journey toward glory. So often we hear, “Don't blame me for not speaking up. I'm not going to risk my job and reputation.” The cries of innocence and excuses of people today sound like Pontius Pilate, claiming to be innocent of Jesus' blood. He agonized over his decision to condemn an innocent man, but he wasn't going to risk his job and reputation. But before we condemn Pilate, or someone we know, for not getting involved or doing the right thing, we must examine our own hands and selfish hearts. We are anything but innocent when it comes to standing up for what is good and right and true in God's sight, especially if it involves risks that may cost us in the end. All of our guilty stains are what led Jesus to that blood-stained cross, where his bloody hands and bleeding heart absorbed all our guilt and shame, so that we can live under the shadow of his cross-free and forgiven and unafraid forever.

Garden of Lilies... Easter is a time when we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus and remember our loved ones. If you would like to bring an Easter Lily to Church in memory of a loved one, we will place it in the sanctuary and offer prayer intentions at every mass for the 6 weeks of Easter. Please do not bring your lilies in until Sat Mar 30, 10am-12pm St. John's. Volunteers needed to decorate 10am-12pm Mar 30. For those people who ordered Lilies through the CWL, Lilies will be delivered Mar 30 and placed at the Altars of St. John's and St. Cornelius.

St. Cornelius will decorate Good Friday after the 11:30am Eucharistic Service.
