First Holy Communions

Please pray for our young people who will be receiving their First Holy Communion during April and May.

"Whomever eats this bread lives forever"

FROM THE PASTOR

Teenagers find it difficult to understand that their parents experienced many of the same emotions they themselves face today. Somehow, youngsters can't imagine their parents going through the identical insecure feelings and disappointments they are now encountering. Mom and Dad may have been their age once but today "things are different." Parents can only patiently listen to it all and hope that the kids will eventually realize that, despite the change in clothing, hair styles and electronic gadgets, the basic problems of adolescence are still the same. The fact that human nature remains basically unchanged can be a great help to our spiritual lives. The people Jesus encountered had the same human feelings we have today. We are all made in God's image and He is well aware of what's going on inside us. Don't be afraid to tell Him your doubts and anxieties as well as the anger you may at times feel toward Him. He's heard it all before and he still loves you.

EDGE EDGE is a catholic ministry for Gr.'s 5, 6, 7 AND 8. Join us May 5th at 1 pm at St. John's Church. For more info, email youthministrycaledoneast@gmail.com. This is a great opportunity for our youth to have something for themselves in our parish family. Hope to see you there!!!

For more than 165 years, Ontario’s publicly funded Catholic schools have been integrating our faith into all aspects of school life, nurturing the gifts and talents of every student. We celebrate the distinctive contribution that Catholic schools provide, giving thanks and offering our prayers for all those who faithfully journey with our young people each day. For more

A special Thank you to Paul Berkers and the Knight’s of Columbus for the donation of the Chocolate Easter Eggs.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili’s may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John’s Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

I hate being wrong. Even more than that, I hate being proven wrong. If no one ever found out, it wouldn’t be so bad. But it seems no sooner do I blunder, than someone figures out that I have. I keep a plaque on my desk as a reminder of this cruel reality. It’s a quote attributed to Michelangelo: “I am still learning.” While Michelangelo may well have said this—he would have been quoting Seneca, who said it first in 65 AD. That the plaque misattributes the origin of the quote makes me laugh. And it sort of proves the point. We’re all still learning. Which means we all have to make peace with correction. Learning to admit our mistakes is good for humility, and humility is good for the soul. Those who refuse to be corrected will be obliged to uphold their mistakes with blaming and bluffing. Get used to taking correction. It’s the best way to be less wrong.

During the month of May special focus is placed on devotions, such as the Rosary. The Rosary will be prayed before all Masses and the crowning of Mary will take place at every Mass by the children. If your child would like to help crown Mary, please arrive a few minutes early and join us at the back of the church.

Church Bulletin Advertising Liturgical Publications will be setting up the advertisements for our church bulletin. The advertising will begin June 2024 & supports the bulletin service. Please support the bulletin and advertise your product or service. Call Liturgical Publications at 1-800-268-2637.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John’s and St. Cornelius Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church.

Next meeting: Wed. May 1 at 7:30 pm.

Pope Francis @Pontifex Jesus, the Good Shepherd, knows us and calls us by name. When we are lost, He seeks us until He finds us. Jesus not only shares the life of the flock, He is the Good Shepherd, who sacrificed His life for us and, having risen, has given us His Spirit.
