All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob

Vocations... When the apostles were trying to reflect on their ministry, Jesus asked them to "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." Listening to God in quiet prayer is very important in vocation discernment. Listen to God's voice in an out-of-the-way place. If you feel the call is genuine, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997

vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

Welcome new parishioners who have moved into our parish boundaries! To be a registered member of our parish is to have a sense of belonging to a Community of Faith.

Registration is necessary when seeking reference letters, eligibility for the sacraments and any other documentation; such as, tax receipts and so on!!! Please introduce yourself/family to the Pastor and register as soon as possible by picking up any set of 2024 envelopes at the entrance. Please fill in the front for the first month's donations so that the information may be registered. - Fr. Bob

Communion Reflection... Have you ever had the experience of looking at some old photographs which recounted an especially good time in your life, and while you are gazing at those pictures, the feelings connected to those times once again make themselves felt within you? Those moments of happiness and joy from our past are really part of who we are today. We carry them with us. When we make the effort to remember them, then we allow their power to affect us in our present life. Whenever we recall genuinely happy, joyful, and peaceful times, we are recalling times when we experienced the presence of God in a special way. Even if those memories are not explicitly religious, God was still in them because God is the true and deep source of all that is loving, peaceful, and joyful.

In general we reap what we sow. We can't expect to reap good if we have sown evil. We must sow peace if we do not want to reap conflict. We must sow loyalty if we do not want to reap betrayal. We must sow honesty if we do not want to reap deceit. Even though we have no absolute guarantee that what we sow will always fall on good ground, or that someone else may not come along and sow contrary seed, nevertheless, if we are careful to sow good seeds we, within reason, trust our expectations because nature has shown that if what is planted bears fruit at all, it will yield more of itself. So, let us sow good seed.

This weeks 2nd collection - Mission Co-op

The Archdiocesan Mission Cooperative Program (MCP) plays an important role in connecting the parishes of the Archdiocese of Toronto with the Catholic Church in other parts of the world. The mandate of the Mission Cooperative Program (MCP) is to provide education for missionaries and food and medical aid for the poor. We welcome Fr. Anthony.

Slow Me Down, Lord

Slow me down, Lord. Slow me down! Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind...
Give me amid the confusion of my day, the calmness of the everlasting hills. Break the tensions of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory. Help me to know the magical restoring power of sleep. Teach me the art of taking minute vacations, of slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book. Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that the race is not always to the swift - that there is more to life than increasing its speed. Let me look upward into the branches of the flowering oak and know that it is great and strong because it grew slowly and well.
Slow me down, Lord and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life's enduring values that I may grow towards the stars of my greater destiny. Amen.

The Assumption & the Afterlife - A one day retreat on Aug 24 at the St. Francis Centre. Hosted by Fr. Pierre Farrugia. Come and reflect on the beautiful Dogma of the Assumption and how our Lord took unto himself, at the end of her earthly journey, the Blessed Virgin Mary in both body and soul and brought her into everlasting glory with him in paradise, crowning her Queen of Heaven and Earth. Registration at 8:30 am, Mass at 4 pm. Space is limited RSVP by calling 519-941-1747. Cost $ 40 - lunch provided.

July 28 - World day for grandparents and elderly

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

Every one of us needs the kind of shepherding that the Lord promises to us. Fear, anxiety, everyday worries, and troubles of all shapes and sizes constantly make their way into our lives. We need to know that we are not walking through the darkness alone. The Lord wants us to know that he is always with us, watching over us, caring for us, giving us guidance. But in order to experience the Lord as our shepherd, we need to open ourselves to the Lord as His sheep accept the care of the shepherd. Most of us have to admit that we don't always bring our concerns to the Lord, or, if we do, we bring our concerns to the Lord, then we immediately take them back again. We don't trust the Lord enough to really completely surrender our fears and worries. We don't want to be without a guide and a leader in our lives. We need to allow the Lord to be a shepherd to us. When we are making big decisions about which way to go in life, we need to allow ourselves to be left into those decisions which are right for us, instead of just doing what we want to do ourselves. In fact, any decision should first be put into the hands of God in order for us to make that decision in the right spirit. It is God's companionship that transforms every situation.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... The Gospel is proclaimed together, as a community. To do so, we must be modest in the use of things, sharing resources and gifts, so that we may be free and everyone may have what they need to live with dignity and contribute to the mission.
