Vocations... Did not God choose those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom? Count your blessings, then come and help others count theirs too, as a priest, religious or deacon. If you feel you have such a vocation, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997
vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

Communion Reflection... The gift of hearing is a precious gift. But it is only with the heart that we can hear rightly. The cry of a needy person may reach our ears, but unless it reaches our heart we will not feel the person's pain, and it is unlikely that we will respond. The gift of speech is a precious gift. But again it is only with the heart that we can speak rightly. For our words to ring true, they must come from the heart. If they come only from the lips, they will have a hollow sound and will have little effect. They will be like a wind that ruffles the surface of the water but leaves the depths untouched. But words that come from the heart, enter the heart.

As we slowly return to our regular routines following our restful summer, we begin to shift our focus to the coming fall season. This will be a time of renewal, changing colours and cooler temperatures. In our readings today, we see Jesus performing one of his many miracles, as he proclaims the coming of the Kingdom of God among us. There are times in our own lives when we are also in need of healing in a variety of ways. May we, like the deaf man in the Gospel, be given the courage to ask Jesus to help us to hear this message of hope and love. Thank you Lord, for your healing presence, as we help to further your Kingdom of love and peace.

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

In her book "In the Heart of the World" Mother Teresa tells a story that goes like this... At a seminary in Bangalore, a nun once told her 'Mother Teresa, you are spoiling the poor people by giving them free things. They are losing their human dignity.' When everyone was quiet, she calmly said, 'No one spoils as much as God himself. See the wonderful gifts He has given to us freely... All of you have no glasses yet you all can see. If God were to take money for your sight, what would happen? Continually we are breathing and living on oxygen that we do not pay for. What would happen if God were to say "If you work four hours you will get sunshine for 2 hours" How many of us would survive then?' Then she also said to them, 'There are many congregations that spoil the rich, it is good to have one congregation in the name of the poor, to spoil the poor.' When she finished there was profound silence; nobody said a word after that.

Happy Grandparents Day

I asked God for water,
he gave me an ocean.
I asked God for a flower,
he gave me a garden.
I asked God for a tree,
he gave me a forest.
I asked God for a friend,
he gave me Grandparents.

Beatitudes of an Elderly Person

Blessed are they who understand
My faltering step and crippled hand.
Blessed are they that know my ears today
Must strain to hear the things they say.
Blessed are they that seem to know
That my eyes are dim and my answers are slow.
Blessed are they who look away
When my tea was spilled at the table today.
Blessed are they with a cheery smile
Who stopped to chat for a little while.
Blessed are they that never say
You have told that story twice today.
Blessed are they that make it known
That I am loved and not alone.
Blessed are all that ease the days.
Of my sunset years in loving ways.
Blessed are my family who are so very dear
Their good care is why I am still here.
