Communion Reflection... What does it mean to trust? Trust implies confidence in a relationship that's reliable in every season. If we've got good news, those whom we trust celebrate it with us. When we mourn, they shed real tears. When we're out of line, they tell us so-and don't walk away. If we go broke, they provide a loan or the couch. When we're humiliated wrongly, they don't avoid us like everyone else. Trusting someone gives us somewhere to turn when there's no place else to go. Often we put our trust in the wrong place: in people who are unreliable, a steady paycheck, a piece of land, a retirement fund, or our own abilities. Hanging from this flawed branch, it can be perilous when the bough breaks. St. Mary MacKillop tells us to "Trust in God's Providence, interfering-as is alway does-for our own good."

rom Pastoris Desk Preserve me God, I take refuge in you. My happiness lies in you. My happiness lies in you alone. You are my portion and my cup, you yourself are my prize I keep you ever in my sight, even at night you direct my heart. With you at my right hand, I shall stand firm. And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay. You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever.

This week's 2nd Collection - Shepherds' Trust The mission of The Shepherds' Trust is to ensure retired priests are provided with sufficient financial resources to lead a dignified life after many years of ministry. Your generous gift will help our priests maintain a modest, but active and independent lifestyle in their retirement years. For priests who are ill or otherwise infirmed, the trust ensures they have access to nursing home facilities and medical care. Thank you for your support of this important work. Please be generous.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Currently, the Good Shepherd is serving upward of 950 meals each day. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

From the Pastor Words of healing are among the most welcome in any language. When tested for illness, we want the result to come back negative. If disease is discovered, we hope to be told there's a treatment. If a procedure must be done, we want the first words we hear afterwards to be: everything went well. If a relationship is severed, we long for words of forgiveness and reconciliation. Today our world is hungry for healing words. We seek words to heal racial injustice, prejudice, violence, fear and ignorance. We hope to walk into the future, whole and in peace. Peace begins in the heart. It spreads through kindness. It blossoms in justice. Let us pray, healer God, make our community whole again, body, mind, and spirit.

Prayer for the Deceased

Remember, Lord, those who have died and have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith, especially those for whom we now pray. May these and all who sleep in Christ, find in your presence light, happiness and peace. Through Christ our Lord.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven."

Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar. All donations will be used for Masses, Memorial Candles, and Sanctuary improvements.
