Vocations... Today we hail Christ as our King. He is the Victor over the power of death Who loves us and freed us from our sins by His own blood, and Who by Baptism has made us a royal nation of priests in the service of His Father and our God.

He Who is King continues to choose men and women to serve as priests, sisters, brothers or deacons, so that the faithful may know Him, love Him and serve Him as well. If you feel God is calling you to a Church vocation, then call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

Communion Reflection... Jesus said, 'My kingdom is not of this world.' Jesus does not rule as earthly kings rule. He has no palace, no throne, no crown, no army. Yet we give him an allegiance and a loyalty, which we would not give to any other person or institution on earth. Alone and unarmed he stood before Pilate. Pilate had thousands of soldiers to call upon. Jesus had no soldier to call upon. Yet Jesus was incomparably the greater of the two. Jesus is the hope of the human race. He rules, not by force, but by love. Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come, and may you remember me on that day.

Then you may ask why have you, My Children, to have tribulations if I have overcome the world. My overcoming was never for Myself, but for you. Each temptation, each difficulty, I overcame as it presented itself. The powers of evil were strained to their utmost to devise means to break me. They failed, but how they failed was known only to Me, and to My father. And so, as I had come to show man God, I must show him God unconquered, unharmed, untouched by evil and its power. Man could not see My Spirit untouched. Risen above these Earth furies and hates. But man could see My risen Body, and learn by that, that even the last attempt of man had been powerless to touch Me. Take heart from that.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. In 2023, Good Shepherd served 330,020 meals. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

Youngsters asking for permission from parents often argue that, "everyone else is doing it." At times, adults also want to do or possess something that "everyone else" does or possesses. Advertisers try to create business by convincing people how much they really "need" an item that they actually only "want." We all strive in one way or another to be like everyone else. While each person has to obey the same civil and biblical rules, to compare ourselves or our possessions with others is not always the right outlook. God made us in His image, not in the image of our neighbour. To compare ourselves to what others have accomplished is not being true to God. Each of us has been given unique gifts and abilities. Our friends have their own. Don't compare yourself to them. Be grateful for what you are and have. It comes from a very good Source.

Advent... is a time to celebrate light in the midst of darkness, as symbolized by the Advent Wreath. The Advent Wreath represents God's love. The evergreen and the circle (wreath) symbolize that God is Eternal and always with us. The candles represent Jesus, the Light of the World....the ONE Light that dispels darkness. The four Advent candles are lit for each of the four Advent Sundays. Advent is traditionally considered a season of penitence and fasting, to prepare for Christmas, and its liturgical colour is purple - the three purple candles reflect this and also the sorrow we feel for not loving Jesus enough. The rose candle is lit on the 3rd Sunday (Gaudete Sunday) in joyful anticipation of Christmas. Some Advent Wreaths have a white candle in the center - this candle represents Christ and is lit on Christmas Day. During the Sundays of Advent all ministers take their positions five minutes early to symbolize our waiting for the Lord. Also, the church moves from darkness to light during the readings. There is no procession of ministers, young children who come extra early for mass on Sat. & Sun. will be chosen to come up in procession to light the wreath.

Search: Best Advent Ever - Dynamic Catholic will email you short inspirational videos, practical tips, and free Christmas music that will help you slow down during the busy Christmas season to focus and transform your life, relationships, work, and ability to genuinely embrace and experience all of life.
