Communion Reflection... When someone gives us a gift, it is a sign of their love, friendship, and care for us. A really special gift shows that the giver has spent time thinking about what we need or would cherish. When we receive such a thoughtful gift, we treasure it. Every time we use it, we think of the one who gave it to us and are compelled to greater love for the giver of the gift. Take this to heart: you are a gift from God! All you are, have, and will be is an outpouring of God's love. Our lives and all that surrounds us are a blessing entrusted to us. Taking this to heart, we will grow in gratitude for the blessings of life and resources; we will use the gifts wisely and well; and we will see in each the glimmer of God's love and care for the us and for the world.

The world is being filled with grace. Every baptism, every new acceptance of the Good News, expands through the world the divine life of God. With every conversion to live his divine Life more authentically, the Word is made flesh more extensively on earth "until we all become one in faith and in the knowledge of God's Son, and from that perfect man who is Christ come to full stature." (Ephesians 4:13) This is the realization of God's plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in Christ, and make him the head over all things for the Church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all. This is the mystery of the Incarnation extended, the mystery of a world "full of grace." The world will be full of grace when all the members of his body are totally surrendered to Christ our Head. Then the Word will be made flesh as the glory of God shining through all humanity. This is the fulfillment of the promise.

Thank You!!! For your generosity and commitment to St. John's & St. Cornelius as we serve the Caledon

Marriage Sunday - A Prayer for Married Couples

Father of life and love,
You created us in your image – woman and man.
We rejoice and thank you for the gift of each other.
Sustain us in our love
and lead us to a deeper understanding of your love.
Jesus, we come before you,
seeking your guidance and direction
in our relationship.
In marriage you call and challenge us
to a permanent, exclusive and sacred friendship.
Be our strength and support, therefore,
as we continue this journey together.
Holy Spirit, help us to strive towards a lasting,
honest commitment united in love.
Give us your strength to carry each other
in times of darkness,
your joy in times of happiness,
and your gift of awe in the uniqueness
and sacredness of each other.
May our love be a reflection and a sign of your love in the world.

A Special thank you to the Knight's of Columbus for hosting the Volunteer Appreciation Dinner

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

There are several places in the Scriptures where God tells someone, "Don't be afraid." In all of these occasions, God is about to do something amazing. But if that's the case, why does God have to tell us not to be afraid? If he's doing something amazing, why is it so scary? The truth is that we are often more comfortable keeping God at a safe distance from us. We want to be warmed by the fire of God's love, but we sometimes don't want to stand too close to the flames. So before God can work a miracle in our lives, he has to tell us not to fear; he has to invite us closer so that the grime of our sinfulness can be burned away and we become more fully human and see more clearly. This journey began with the angel's words to Mary, "Do not be afraid." Now it's our turn to move closer to God. Lord help me to conquer the fears that keep me from drawing closer to you. Warm my heart with your love and transform my life.
