All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family. Fr. Bob

Vocations... On this Good Shepherd Sunday we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life, especially for our diocese, that God will raise up good shepherds in our midst. If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.ca

Communion Reflection... Christianity is a meaningful way of life. As Christians, we do not only understand that all is a gift, we must acknowledge the particular gifts with which we are entrusted. This is not always easy, not because the gifts are not present, but because many of us have been taught a false sense of humility that downplays any giftedness or special contribution we might make to the world. When you name the talents and skills you have, for example, you are much more able to offer them in service, sharing, and caring. You may explore the ways your talents equip you to show God's love in special ways. You might recognize a particular ministry that needs your time, attention, and presence in the way that only you can offer. By acknowledging that you have particular gifts that are entrusted to you, you may more intentionally make those gifts fruitful. In doing so, you point to God, who is the giver of all good gifts, and give glory to God through your faith.

Historians can always determine when a photograph was taken by the style of clothes worn by those in the picture. Styles change over time and one can ascertain what life was like at a certain era in history once the time frame is determined. The qualities of one's soul are timeless. We can read the writings of saints who lived centuries ago and still profit from their spiritual insights. Relatives and friends who have been gone for years are remembered today; not for what they wore but for who they were and how they treated others. No one knows exactly how Jesus dressed or what colors He wore but everyone remembers what He said and the works He performed. Clothes may go out of style but the memories of our actions toward others are timeless.

Online registration is now open for A Day with Mary - May 31 at Villanova College in King City. During the Jubilee Holy Year, spend a day with our Blessed Mother, Our Lady of Hope and deepen your devotion to her through a keynote address by Dr. Josephine Lombardi, a number of inspiring witnessings and Holy Mass presided over by His Eminence Frank Cardinal Leo. This family friendly event will have music, food, fellowship, children's catechesis and activities – something for everyone. For more information and to register visit archtoronto.org/mary.

Hail Mary

Full of grace, the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now, and at the hour of our death. Amen

Provide A Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

It's said that hope is the source of all suffering. You could see it that way, if by hope you mean the "shut your eyes, cross your fingers and long for the best" kind of hope. That kind of hope almost always leads to crushing disappointments. A pastor once said to a Bible class: "When you die, are you sure you'll go to heaven?" One woman answered, "I sure hope so!" There was nervous laughter. She wasn't sure, and she wasn't the only one. Jesus says to all who are uncertain, "Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you? If I go, I will come again. Where I am, you may be also." Does this sound like a man who's unsure of his identity? Is this a man who doesn't seem to know how this movie ends? Is this a Saviour who wants his people chronically anxious, wondering about their eternal destination? The truth is—He is the destination.

Thank you for last week's 2nd Collection for ShareLife.

Prayer for Mothers

Good and Gentle God, we pray in gratitude for our mothers and for all the women of theory who have joined with you in the wonder of bringing forth new life. You who became human through a woman, grant to all mothers the courage they need to face the uncertain future that life with children always brings. Give them the strength to live and to be loved in return, not perfectly, but humanly. Give them the faithful support of husband, family and friends as they care for the physical and spiritual growth of their children. Give them joy and delight in their children to sustain them through the trials of motherhood. Most of all, give them the wisdom to turn to you for help when they need it most.

Welcome new parishioners who have moved into our parish boundaries! To be a registered member of our parish is to have a sense of belonging to a Community of Faith. Registration is necessary when seeking reference letters, eligibility for the sacraments and any other documentation; such as, tax receipts and so on!!! Please introduce yourself/family to the Pastor and register as soon as possible by picking up any set of 2025 envelopes at the entrance. Please fill in the front for the first month's donations so that the information may be registered. - Fr. Bob
