Communion Reflection... The life of discipleship is one of ongoing conversion, of becoming more like Christ. It is important to admit there are many times when we are not like Christ! We are tempted by material things, selfish desires, and self-centeredness. To be more like Christ is to turn away from these temptations and to turn toward God and others. Remember the young man who approached Jesus and asked what he should do to attain eternal life? Jesus told him to give away what he had to the poor. We are told the young man went away sad, because he had many things. Things weighed him down. We could say that his possessions possessed him. What weighs you down? Growing as good Christians, we not only turn away from the constant search for material wealth and things, but also from the cares and concerns that lead us to this displaced seeking. Turning away from these things frees us to turn toward God and others.

Be perfect? You've got to be kidding. I don't know anyone who comes even close, although I've known some people who think they have. Jesus' call to a life of complete obedience and holiness drives some seekers to despair. But his initial purpose is to bring us to our knees each day in humble repentance, confident that God's forgiveness and mercy are new and fresh for us every morning. We will never be perfect on this side of eternity. But God's Spirit moves and motivates us to be compassionate, as our heavenly Father is compassionate. Compassion is more than sympathy. Compassionate disciples walk so closely with others in their pain and struggles that they actually suffer with them, for the sake of our suffering Saviour. Jesus walked the way of sorrows to the cross, where he willingly endured the full wrath of God against sin, so that we might live as his fully forgiven children and serve as his compassionate disciples, through our earthly pilgrimage.

Fr. Allyn Rose Welcome - July 5/6 after all the Masses at St. John's Church. Join the Knights of Columbus as they host a welcome for Fr. Allyn

A Warm Welcome to Our New Parish Priest

Congratulations - To the Graduating Classes of St. Cornelius & R.F. Hall Schools. Thank you to all of our Great Teachers and Staff for all of your efforts during this past year.

Looking back over the school year

We wish to offer our congratulations and God's many blessings to our young people who have received the Sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation this year. A special word of thanks is offered to their teachers, parents, parish catechist, choirs, lectors, ushers and Eucharistic ministers, who prepared and helped celebrate these sacraments with them. May the Lord continue to fill their hearts with His peace and deep love, with each passing day, as we grow together along our Christian journey.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-880-0080. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, serve our Parish, and make new friends.

June is Dad Joke Month:

Q: Why shouldn't you trust trees?

A: They seem shady

1. Canada Day is the national day of Canada. A federal statutory holiday, the occasion celebrates the anniversary of July 1, 1867, the effective date of the Constitution Act.

2. On July 1, 1867 The British North America Act created the Canadian federal government. This act stated that Canada would become an "independent dominion" (territory) of England, which is why Canada Day was originally called Dominion Day. In 1982 Dominion Day was changed to Canada Day after a vote in Parliament.
3. To help them design the country's official flag. Parliament asked Canadian in 1963 to draft suggestions. Of the 3,541 patriots who responded, nearly 400 thought a beaver should be front and centre before finally deciding to use the iconic maple leaf.
4. Canada was derived from the Huron and Iroquois Native American language. The word "kanata" translates to village.
5. On the weekend of July 1, across the entire country, Canadians drink 1.2 million litres of alcohol/beer.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex Christ is God's answer to our human hunger, because his Body is the bread of eternal life. When we partake of Jesus, the living and true Bread, we live for him. By offering himself completely, the crucified and risen Lord delivers himself into our hands, and we realize that we were made to partake of God.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. In 2023, Good Shepherd served 330,020 meals. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

One of the most notorious characters that ever lived in New York was Orville Gardner. He was the trainer of prizefighters and companion to all sorts of hard characters. His reputation was so thoroughly bad that he was nicknamed "Awful Gardner." He had a son, who he dearly loved. Unfortunately, his son drowned. A short time after his boy's death, Orville was standing at the bar in a New York saloon, surrounded by several of his rough companions. The night was sweltering, so he stepped outside to get a little fresh air. As he stood out there, he looked at the star, he said to himself, "I wonder where my little boy is tonight?" Just as quickly the thought came to him, "Wherever he is, you will never see him again unless you change your life." This got his attention. Jesus went into the desert to be with God. We too, go into the desert. The desert is within us. Take a look at yourself, don't play games, examine your life. Are you living the life that God asks of you? What do you need to change? This is your invitation to grow in grace. Don't waste the opportunity.

Teacher Candidates... The Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board requires all teacher applicants to submit a pastoral portfolio/reference when applying for a teaching position. It is the responsibility of the candidate to attend Sunday liturgy, be involved in parish life and contact the parish priest well in advance. Teacher candidates who are attending school out of the local area are also responsible to give the pastor advance notice. The pastor cannot complete the form if he does not know the applicant. For further info, please pick up a Teacher Reference Form Pamphlet at the back of the church. Leave your form at the office for the Pastor's review.
