Vocations... "Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you." Try it! Then listen, look, and enter. Perhaps priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life awaits you. If God is calling you contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of

Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org
/www.vocationstoronto.ca

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-880-0080. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, serve our Parish, and make new friends.

Missing information: Env # 5124, 5471, 5237, 5131, Sousa family Please write your name and address on your envelope.

Communion Reflection... One of the most crucial questions we ponder in our lives is that of vocation. Who are you, and what are you called to do? In a fundamental way, we share a common vocation as Christian disciples. To be a disciple is our vocation. But there is a personal vocation that must be considered as well. What shape will this discipleship take in your life? All of these questions of vocation are given clarity when we recall that the root of the word "vocation" is the Latin vocare, which means to call. Christ calls each of us personally. Beyond the call to a particular state of life—priesthood, religious life, married, or committed single life—there are calls that we discern and live out throughout our lives. In this sense, there is no singular, once-and-for-all calling. Rather, your entire life as a Christian is a process of recognizing and responding to God's grace. You do this most profoundly when you acknowledge the gifts you have been given and discern what work or service most needs what you have to give.

How many times have you been surprised at the growth of God's kingdom? When a pandemic shut down our nation and restrictions seemed to limit our church, God's seed continued to sprout and grow, and we don't know how. Closed doors led to open windows of opportunity, all God's doing—a support group in our neighbourhood, a new ministry online, helping Christian groups in the city. In Acts 8, persecution of the apostles caused believers to flee Jerusalem and start spreading the Good News of Jesus in unexpected places like Samaria. When we are open to God's seed sprouting, God brings rejoicing as we find fresh opportunities for service and witness his kingdom growth, all because of our Saviour changing lives.

2nd Collection this weekend - Mission Co-op

The Archdiocesan Mission Cooperative Program (MCP) plays an important role in connecting the parishes of the Archdiocese of Toronto with the Catholic Church in other parts of the world. Through this appeal, our local Catholic community learns about the mission works of the Church and will have the opportunity to offer financial support.

World Day for grandparents and the Elderly

The World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly is celebrated this weekend on Sunday July 27.

The theme chosen by the Holy Father - "Do not cast me off in my old age" (cf. Psalm 71:9) - is meant to call attention to the fact that, sadly, loneliness is the bitter lot in life of many elderly persons, so often the victims of the throw-away culture.

A Prayer for the Elderly

Thank you Lord for the long life you have granted them.

Help us let them know we value them, their wisdom and experience.

We ask that they be honoured and blessed, until the end of their lives.

Young and Restless Social ~ Spiritual ~ Service The young adult ministry (18-35) meets twice a month to spend time in discussion and fellowship through fun socials, movies, pub nights, hikes and more! Aug 1 - 7 pm First Friday Adoration & Confession followed by pizza social.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John's and St. Cornelius Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church and on our website. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date. Next meeting: Wed. Aug 6 at 7 pm.

Mass on the Road this Summer For Mass schedules while traveling this summer, go to www.masstimes.org on the web. You will find Mass times by city and parish, information on the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, non-English services and more for many parishes.

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. In 2024, Good Shepherd served 330,020 meals. Your care, compassion, and hospitality give renewed hope to vulnerable and marginalized individuals who walk through the doors of Good Shepherd.

Christ said that the person who asked would receive; the person who searched would find; and the person who knocked would have the door opened to him. But if a person asks in a half-hearted way, then he will not receive. And if he fears to lose the pleasures of the old world, then he will not find the joys of a new world. And if he knocks half fearing that the door will open, so that he will go in and be shut off from the comforts of the world, then the door will not open to him. There are some people who are unwilling to renounce a single one of their former values in order to gain a new one. Such people will never be unified or free, and they make it very difficult for themselves to enter the kingdom of God.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex Every true encounter is free and cannot be bought: whether it is with God, with others, or with nature. We must simply become guests: make space and also ask for it; welcome and allow ourselves to be welcomed. We are called not only to give, but also to receive.

Teacher Candidates... The Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board requires all teacher applicants to submit a pastoral portfolio/reference when applying for a teaching position. It is the responsibility of the candidate to attend Sunday liturgy, be involved in parish life and contact the parish priest well in advance. Teacher candidates who are attending school out of the local area are also responsible to give the pastor advance notice. The pastor cannot complete the form if he does not know the applicant. For further info, please pick up a Teacher Reference Form Pamphlet at the back of the church.
