Communion Reflection... Of all of the moments recorded in the gospels, one of the most challenging and compelling is that of Jesus washing the feet of his disciples. It was at the Last Supper, his final meal with them before he entered into his passion and crucifixion. Jesus knew that the time had to come for him to give himself for the sake of the world. In that moment, he wanted to express what is most important. He gave his disciples—us—a command: "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." To love so completely, to serve as Jesus calls us to serve, we must be willing to see the needs of the people around us—in our families, at work, in our parishes and schools, in our local communities and the world. Have you ever noticed that the more you serve, the more comfortable you become doing so? The more you witness and experience the service of others, the more inspired you will be to reach out in love and care.

A dear friend, journeying through his share of adversity, came across a less-than-helpful quote by Augustine: "Whenever we suffer some affliction, we should regard it both as a punishment and as a correction." My friend was not exactly encouraged by this sentiment.

We all see the reality of suffering in our own lives and the lives of those we love. To be sure, we often endure the consequences of our mistakes and sins. But if we see our heavenly Father only as one who punishes and corrects, we will never experience the peace, love and mercy of being his adopted children. Jesus did not come to take away every earthly hardship. Instead, he binds up our wounds with his own, transforming and redeeming us as we enter into the mystery of his death and resurrection.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. John's and St. Cornelius Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet, please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church and on our website. Preparation meetings are held on the first Wednesday of every month. You must attend a meeting to secure a Baptism date. Next meeting: Wed. Aug 6 at 7:30 pm.

Mission Co-op Sunday - Thank You

For last weekend's 2nd collection for Mission Co-op and for making Fr. Sojan feel welcome.

On the Lighter Side: A father was at the beach with his children when the four-year-old son ran up to him, grabbed his hand, and led him to the shore where a seagull lay dead in the sand. "Daddy, what happened to him?" the son asked. "He died and went to Heaven," the Dad replied. The boy thought a moment and then said, "Did God throw him back down?"

Have a Delightful Week!

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thanks to community partners like you, individuals facing hunger are welcomed and served daily at Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

I'm sure the day a doctor decided to visit a monastery he hadn't the slightest thought that the prior would throw him in to the swimming pool. He stood with his nobility firmly in place at the beginning of the party, but when his wife was nudged into the water by a clumsy brother passing by, he may have begun to change his mind about what a monastery was. Superficial solemnity, thankfully, was never part of my experience. I have always favoured the kind of spiritual involvement that begets rather than kills earthly humour and even ribaldry. The perspective of divinity can be defined as all that is contrary to human intention and dignified expectation. We know we are moving more deeply into the spirit when we notice the presence in us of holy foolishness. And who is to say that this was not a case of baptismal renewal?

Dear God,

I know that I am not perfect,
 I know sometimes I forget to pray,
 I know I have questioned my faith,
 and I know sometimes I loose my temper.
 Thank you for loving me unconditionally & giving me another day to start over again!

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex We cannot pray to God as "Father" and then be harsh and insensitive towards others. We must rather let ourselves be transformed by His goodness, patience, and mercy, so that His face may be reflected in ours as in a mirror.
