Communion Reflection... I must be filled with joy if my feet are on the right road and my face set towards the gate which is called beautiful, though I may fall many times in the mire and often in the mist go astray. Far off, like a perfect pearl, one can see the City of God. It is so wonderful that it seems as if a child could reach it in a summer's day. And so a child could. But with me and such as me it is different. One can realise a thing in a single moment, but one loses it in the long hours that follow the leaden feet. We think in terms of eternity, but we move slowly through time.

Sometimes our burdens may seem to be more than we can bear, especially when they are exacerbated by someone who makes our life almost unbearable. When we are overwhelmed by our own burdens and cares, how can we be expected to bear the burdens of others? God doesn't ask any more of us than he himself has experienced. In the person of his Son, he carried the weight of all of humanity's failings and burdens to the cross, where his heart was broken for us, so that we might be set free from the crushing burden of our countless offenses. There at the foot of the cross, our Lord invites us to lay our guilt and burdens down—and leave them there. Having been freed from the penalty of our sin, our load is light and enough that we can lighten the burdens of others, by sharing the weight of their heavy load. Even more important, we can invite them to join us at the foot of the cross, where Christ will become our mutual burden-bearer.

Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation Fund - Second Collection - Oct 4/5 Catholics throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto are invited to participate in the collection being held the weekend of Oct 4/5 to support the Indigenous Healing & Reconciliation Fund. The collection is part of a national grassroots effort to assist healing and reconciliation with Indigenous People of This Land. To date, the Archdiocese of Toronto has allocated $3.1 million to support projects that focus on culture and language revitalization, education and community building, healing and reconciliation for communities and dialogue involving Indigenous elders, spiritual leaders and youth. Let us join together and follow the invitation extended by the late Pope Francis during his penitential visit of 2022 for each one of us to become engaged in the healing and reconciliation journey. For more information or to donate online, visit: www.archtoronto.org/healingandreconciliation. Thank you for your generosity.

Provide A Meal... Last weekend was our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. With your gift, you are helping to provide hot, nutritious meals for individuals who are struggling with homelessness and poverty. Thanks to community partners like you, individuals facing hunger are welcomed and served daily at Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available.

Every generation tries it; we all do it, firmly believing it'll work: We think we can change others by telling them what to do and not to do. Telling people what to do and not to do can alter bad behaviour and show what good behaviour is, but only outwardly and temporarily. One thing it can not do is change a human heart. It's powerless to perform that monumental task. Tell someone not to hate and they'll say, "I can't promise that!" But one who's been plucked from the darkness of unbelief into the light of the Gospel can say, "There is only one thing worse than hating, and that's wanting to hate and not being able to." That's a changed heart speaking. Changing hearts isn't our job. Serving our neighbour with gentleness and respect, telling others of the forgiveness won by Jesus on the cross is. It's the Gospel announcement, heard and believed, that changes one heart at a time.

Oct 5 - 11th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

For the 111th World Day of Migrants & Refugees, the theme announced by His Holiness is "Migrants, Missionaries of Hope." In his message, Pope Leo highlights the resilience of migrants and refugees who give witness to hope amidst very difficult circumstances. He reminds us that those who welcome migrants and refugees can also reflect this same hope. His message ends with a call to entrust all those who journey, and all those accompany them to the protection of the Virgin Mary, comfort of migrants.

The Office of Vocations will be hosting a Come & See Weekend Discernment Retreat for men 18 years and older, at St. Augustine's Seminary on Fri, Oct 31 (6:30 pm) until Sun, Nov 2 (2 pm). This retreat offers a way for men to discern a possible call to priesthood at our seminary. Registration must be done online at www.vocationstoronto.ca/comeandsee For more information, please email vocations@archtoronto.org.
