Vocations... The Good Shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them. Is He asking you to help others to find Him? Pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life, especially for our archdiocese, that God will raise up good shepherds in our midst. If God is calling you, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Communion Reflection... Compassion is not learned without suffering. Unless we have suffered and wept, we really don't understand what compassion is, nor can we comfort someone who is suffering. Unless we have walked in darkness, we can't help wanderers to find their way. But if we have suffered we become path finders for others. And it is by reaching out to others that we ourselves are healed. Jesus bore the marks of our violent world on his body. Those wounds were the proof of his love. They were the mortal wounds the Good Shepherd picked up in caring for his sheep. The wounds of Jesus are a source of courage, consolation, and hope to us in our sufferings. By his wounds we are healed.

As years pass and bodies age, some wonder if they are as attractive as they once were. Long pauses before a mirror to count grey hairs and wrinkles can lead one to become discouraged about the effects of time on their appearance. Those that love them often reassure such discouraged individuals that it's what's on the inside that really matters. External appearances are irrelevant to the goodness that we see and love in each other. Jesus often kept company with socially unattractive people. He saw the good that was present in those that others judged to be sinners and unworthy of attention. Our Lord never judged a book by its cover. He taught His followers not to do that either. This also applies to the person we see in the mirror each day. He doesn't judge us by what's outside. Why should we judge.

Bundle Up for St. Vincent de Paul! Until Apr 26

2nd Collection this weekend for Share life

Today is ShareLife Sunday, the second weekend of special collections. Since 1976, ShareLife has been rooted in our Catholic values of charity and in living the Gospel by caring for those in need.

Over the decades, thousands of people across our archdiocese have come together through parish campaigns, school drives, workplace giving, and personal acts of kindness to make a difference in the lives of countless individuals and families. ShareLife recognizes that all humans are created in the image of God, with a commitment to the dignity of the individual and the right to life, working on behalf of the poor and vulnerable. As we celebrate this milestone anniversary in 2026, we invite you to join us in honouring this legacy of serving the marginalized in our parish community and around the world. With your support, ShareLife-funded agencies can continue to provide vital services—like counselling for families, support for isolated seniors, and care for those facing mental health challenges—for years to come.

Our parish goal this year is $ 48,500.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Family portraits are among our most precious possessions. But how many of us have talked about going to a photographer for a family portrait and it never quite comes together? In some cases years go by. Here is our chance to get that professional portrait and it will all take place here in our church between Apr 27-30, and May 22,23. IPC Photo Canada works at hundreds of churches across the country every year. Every Family will get a copy of this photo album FREE just for having their portrait taken. This is also a great record of our church life and eventually a historical record of this year! Please help us make this church photo album as complete as possible! Booking sheets are available at the back of the church. The planning committee thanks you in advance for your participation and support in this very significant project.

We invite all parishioners to join in celebrating Catholic Education Week 2026, which runs from May 3-8. For more than 165 years, Ontario's publicly funded Catholic schools have been integrating our faith into all aspects of school life, nurturing the gifts and talents of every student. We celebrate the distinctive contribution that Catholic schools provide, giving thanks and offering our prayers for all those who faithfully journey with our young people each day. For more information about Catholic Education Week visit www.goodnewsforall.ca

Provide A Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd.

Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. We are grateful for your support and only together it is possible for us to provide needed services to those less fortunate in our community. Let us share our blessings.

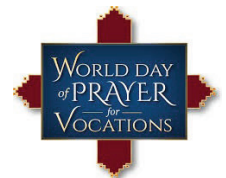

Never doubt. Have no fear. Watch the faintest tremor of fear, and stop all work, everything, and rest before Me until you are joyful and strong again. Deal in the same way with all tired feelings. I was weary too, when on Earth, and I separated Myself from My disciples, and sat and rested on the well. Rested—and then it was that the Samaritan woman was helped. I had to teach renewal of Spirit—force rest of body to My disciples. Then, as your Example, I lay with My Head on a pillow, asleep in the boat. It was not, as they thought, indifference. They cried, “Master, carest thou not that we perish?” and I had to teach them that ceaseless activity was not part of My Father's plan. When Paul said, “I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me,” he did not mean that he was to do all things and then rely on Me to find strength. He meant for all I told him to do he could rely on My supplying the strength. My work in the world has been hindered by work, work, work. Many a tireless, nervous body has driven a spirit. The spirit should be the master always, and just simply and naturally use the body as need should arise. Rest in Me. Do not seek to work for Me. Never make opportunities. Live with Me and for Me. I do the work and I make the opportunities.

Prayer for Vocations

Mary Most Holy, as a young woman living in obscurity you nurtured with loving care the Word of God made flesh. Please protect and accompany all young men and women, especially from our parish, who are called to a vacation to the priesthood or religious life.
