Communion Reflection... It was late spring and the buds still refused to open. Tightly wrapped up in themselves, they were as hard as stones. The wind shook them. The hail beat them. The frost squeezed them in a fist of iron. All three shouted, 'Open up! Open up!' Instead of opening up, the buds reinforced their shells, and retreated even more deeply into themselves. Then along came the sun. It issued no threats and made no demands. It just created a more friendly climate. And what happened? Almost overnight the buds began to soften and expand. Then their shells cracked, and they burst out. If you love, you are gentle. And there are certain tasks which only gentleness can accomplish.

Nowadays, thanks to the security camera, we are often being watched, watched by a cold, dispassionate eye, intent only on catching us in wrong-doing. The feeling that someone is watching us is not a pleasant feeling. But the feeling that someone is watching over us is a lovely feeling. God is not watching us, God is watching over us. The conviction that God is watching over us, gives us comfort in times of sadness, strength in times of weakness, and hope in times of despair.

Sharelife Your gift to ShareLife invests in the future of our Church Your support of ShareLife helps form future priests—men who will listen, accompany, comfort, and offer Christ to the world. Rev. James Cyfko spent a decade in formation at St. Augustine’s Seminary, preparing to lay down his life for the people of God. “I deeply appreciate the ongoing charity of ShareLife,” says Rev. James Cyfko. “I am eager to give back to the community which has helped me focus on faithfully following my vocational calling.” Your devotion lifts the burden of financial worry, enabling men to embrace God’s call fully in preparation for a life of service.

Next Sunday, May 31 is the third ShareLife Sunday collection of the year.

Our parish goal this year is $ 48,500.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

Move in me, Holy Spirit,
that my work, too, may be holy.

Attract my heart, Holy Spirit,
that I may love only what is holy.

Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.

Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.

The feast of Pentecost is, in a very real way, our communal birthday celebration. With the coming of the Spirit, the Church comes into the fullness of its life. The Spirit came upon the apostles and they preached the fullness of the life of Jesus, the “Good News” of salvation. In the early Christian communities, belief in the power of the Spirit was so strong and intense that wonderful experiences occurred. In the midst of all the changes and renewal that we have experienced in today’s church, we cannot help but be struck by the movement of the Holy Spirit. The life of Christ has been felt in a new way by so many Christians. No longer can we call ourselves Catholic and have it remain a name. We are summoned to a dynamic witness of the Gospel. It is not always an easy task, but we can be confident that the Spirit of God is upon us to give us all the assistance we need. Let us all re-commit ourselves today to the life of the Spirit; let us renew the promises of our Confirmation. Let us make our own lives more vibrant witnesses of the Gospel message of Jesus. Let us make the life of our parish a witness of all that we believe.

A Reminder That... On June 17 weekday masses will be returning to St. John’s Church from the R.F. Hall C.S.S Chapel

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John’s Church. With food insecurity affecting one in every four households, Good Shepherd Ministries serves upward of 950 meals per day to combat this issue. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

How unseeing the world goes on! How unknowing of your heartaches and troubles, your battles won, your conquests, your difficulties. But be thankful, both of you, that there is One who knows, One who marks every crisis, every effort, every heartache. For you both, who are not idle hearers, you must know that every troubled soul I tell you of, is one for you to help. You must help all you can. You do not help enough. As you help, help will flow back and your circle of helpfulness will widen more and more, ever more and more. Just feel that you are two of My disciples, present at the feeding of the five thousand, and that to you I have out the food, and you pass it on, ever more and more. You can always say with so few loaves and fishes “We have only enough for our own needs.” It was not only My Blessing, but the Passing-on of the disciples that worked the miracle. Get a feeling of bounteous giving into your being. They were “all filled.” There was a supply over. I give with a large Hand and Heart. Note the draught of fishes. The net brake; the boat began to sink with the lavishness of My Gift. Lose sight of all limitations. Abundance is God’s Supply. Turn out all limited thoughts. Receive showers and in your turn—shower.

125th Anniversary of St. John’s Save the Date: Aug 22, 2026

As we plan how to celebrate 125 years of St. John’s church, we are actively fundraising for this special day. This month we bring you MUGS!! Pick up special St. John’s commemorative mugs from the back of the church or call the office. One mug for $ 12 or two for $ 20. Two distinctive designs to pick from. All proceeds will go towards the planning and execution of our celebration on Aug 22.

Bequests to the Parish

A bequest in your Will to our Church is an acknowledgment of your returning to God a portion of the gifts He has bestowed on you during your lifetime. Charitable bequests can have a favourable impact on your overall estate plan. Bequests are NOT just for the wealthy! Consider including your parish or any of the archdiocesan charities or departments in your Will. Let your Will reflect your Catholic values.
