Deacon Silverio Fidalgo

All are welcome here at St. John and St. Cornelius in Caledon. We proclaim the Good News and celebrate the Eucharist. We rejoice with new members joining us through Baptism and conversion. We smile with our children, youth, and newly married couples. We sympathize and pray for our sick and remember and honour those called to eternal life in heaven. We nurture the gift of faith, serving those in need and build community through fellowship and sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. We celebrate the beauty of creation, from conception to natural death. We treasure our historical past and hope in the promise of tomorrow looking forward to a future full of hope and opportunities. We look forward to you being a part of our faith community. Join us and become part of our family.

Communion Reflection... Peter has been called a stumbling saint. He is a great consolation to us because courage fails us all. All of us are mere mortals, who are inconstant in our beliefs. We must learn to forgive ourselves momentary weakness and failures. We need to surmount these things and see the world in less rigid terms. We must not judge ourselves or others by momentary inconsistencies, but rather by commitment given over a long time. Jesus was well aware of Peter's faults, but he saw that, in spite of everything, his heart was sound. Which meant he had the ability to love. And in the long run love is what counts.

There was a little boy who got separated from his parents in a large shopping center. The Security Department quickly located the child, and took him to an office while the frantic parents were paged over the public address. One of the security guards got a large ice cream cone for the boy, so when his parents arrived at the office, there was their little son happily eating his ice cream. Suddenly, as his parents embraced him, the child burst into tears. One of the security guards said, "Gosh, I guess he didn't know he was lost, until he was found!" How do I know when I'm lost? What does a lost person look like? Do you have to be lying in the alleyway, so drunk you can't move? Or stoned and strung out on drugs, completely out of touch with reality? Or so caught up with greed that you would even steal from your mother if you had the chance? Or can you be sitting properly in a church pew, looking quite dignified and correct, and still be lost? "For the Son of Man came to seek out and save the lost." These are the words that we remember with joy knowing that no matter who we are or where we are from or what ever our state of mind Jesus is continuously looking for us. Let us pray that the Lord our God is successful in finding all that are lost, whatever their struggles may be.

Reconciliation/1st Communion & Confirmation

Applications for students wishing to celebrate the Sacraments of Reconciliation & First Communion and Confirmation will be made available soon.

Please note that students who were baptized in a Parish other than St. John's & St. Cornelius will need to include a copy of their Baptismal Certificate with the application. Watch the bulletin for updates.

Have you received all of your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, First Communion, Confirmations)?? Are you, or do you know someone who is, interested in becoming Catholic??

Beginning this fall, Fr. Allyn will be leading a Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program. This will be a program that runs one day a week from October until Easter, with the candidates receiving their Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. If you are interested, or know someone who is, please see Fr. Allyn after Mass or contact the office to get a registration form.

We are also looking for volunteers to walk alongside our RCIA participants as they journey towards full initiation into the Catholic Church. Volunteers would be expected to attend the weekly meetings and participate in group discussions. No previous background in faith formation is necessary. In fact, this could be a good way to deepen in your own understanding of our Catholic faith. Contact the office if you are interested.

A big thank you to our gardening committee who worked hard to clear the garden beds and add new plants. If you would like to be part of the gardening committee, please contact the office at 905-880-0080 or stjohntheevangelistca@archtoronto.org

We Are Blessed!

No matter what happens to us...we are lucky.

We are lucky to be alive...
to have problems and challenges...
to have strengths and weaknesses...
people who love us...
a roof over our heads...
our health.

Take care of what you've got.

Focus on the positive.

Know that you are very, very fortunate, and things could indeed, be much worse!

Treat yourself as a lucky person today and every day.

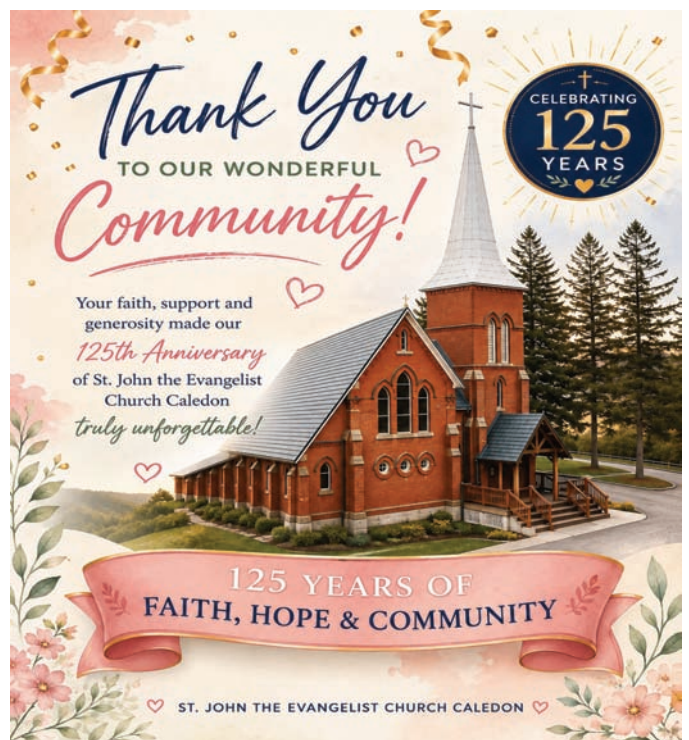

Blessed = Lucky

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. With food insecurity affecting one in every four households, Good Shepherd Ministries serves upward of 950 meals per day to combat this issue. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

See not the small trials and vexations of each hour of the day. See the one purpose and plan to which all are leading. If in climbing a mountain you keep your eyes on each stony or difficult place as you ascend, seeing only that, how weary and profitless your climb! But if you think of each step as leading to the summit of achievement, from which glories and beauties will open out before you, then your climb will be so different.

A heartfelt thank you to our Planning Committee, volunteers, and everyone who contributed to the 125th Anniversary celebration. Your time, creativity, and dedication made this milestone event truly special. From early planning meetings to set up, hosting activities, and end of day clean up, your efforts created a joyful and memorable day for our entire community. We are deeply grateful for all you gave to make this celebration shine. A special thank you to Bishop Ivan Camilleri for coming to Caledon and celebrating with us.
