Communion Reflection... Who can separate his faith from his actions, or his belief from his occupations? Who can spread his hours before him, saying: 'This for God and this for myself; this for my soul and this other for my body?' He who wears his morality but as his best garment were better naked. Your daily life is your temple and your religion. Whenever you enter into it take with you your all. Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute, the things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight. And take with you all men. And if you would know God... look about you and you will see him playing with your children.

Worry is the great spoiler. So many times when we could be celebrating the good things in our life, we are instead lost in our worries about the future. The Bible repeatedly urges us to trust God, to live as if we really believe that God will take care of the future. But trusting God is not easy for most of us, no matter how much we give lip service to the idea. It means placing our future into the hands of another, losing control of our lives. That is too much for many of us, who would rather indulge in that preventative magic called worry. Some of us even take a perverse pride in worrying, and try to assure ourselves that it is a virtue. Still, if this awareness just gives us another thing to worry about, what good is that? We must not worry about worrying! Rather, in prayer, we must daily let go of our worries, turn them over to God, and let God help us learn to enjoy life.

This Weeks 2nd Collection for World Mission Sunday
The Archdiocese of Toronto is not isolated, but part of a much larger family united under one Father, with a common vision. As one family, on World Mission Sunday we are impelled to raise awareness of our brothers and sisters living in different corners of our world, often in difficult situations. We have both a duty and an obligation to reach out to them, going beyond our borders, seeking ways of living in solidarity with our brothers and sisters, especially where the Church is struggling, as a sign of unity.

Confirmation Parent Meeting Thursday October 22 at 7:00 pm at St. John's Church

Have you received all of your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, First Communion, Confirmations)?? Are you, or do you know someone who is, interested in becoming Catholic??

Beginning this fall, Fr. Allyn will be leading a Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program. This will be a program that runs one day a week from November until Easter, with the candidates receiving their Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. If you are interested, or know someone who is, please see Fr.

Allyn after Mass or contact the office to get a registration form.

We are also looking for volunteers to walk alongside our RCIA participants as they journey towards full initiation into the Catholic Church. Volunteers would be expected to attend the weekly meetings and participate in group discussions. No previous background in faith formation is necessary. In fact, this could be a good way to deepen in your own understanding of our Catholic faith. Contact the office if you are interested.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available on the porch of the house at St. John's Church. With food insecurity affecting one in every four households, Good Shepherd Ministries serves upward of 1,100 meals per day to combat this issue. Your generosity is giving suffering people the gift of presence – a place where their voices can be heard, where their human dignity is acknowledged. Thank you for giving the joy of renewed life to those in need.

From the Pastor

Down through the ages all the simple acts of steadfast devotion, of obedience in difficulty, of loving service, have been taken by Me as an atonement for the loneliness My humanity suffered by the desertion. Yet I, who had realized to the full the longing of the Father to save, and His rejection by men, the misunderstanding of His mind and purpose, how could I think that I should not know that desertion too? Learn, My children, from these words two lessons. Learn first that I know what loneliness, desertion, and solitude mean. Learn that every act of yours of faithfulness is a comfort to My Heart. Learn too that it was to those deserters I gave the task of bringing My Message to mankind. To those deserters, those fearful ones, I have My Power to heal, to raise to life. Earth's successes are not the ones I use for the great work of My Kingdom. "They all forsook Him and fled." Learn My tender understanding and pardon of human frailty. Not until man has failed has he learnt true humility. And it is only the humble who can inherit the earth.

St. John the Evangelist Parish welcomes long-time registered nurse and parish nurse candidate Cheryl Smith who is doing her placement here at St. John's. She is available for friendly home visits to parishioners who are homebound. If you are interested, please reach out to the parish office. Stay tuned for a survey of our parish to understand the wishes of our congregation related to lunch and learn sessions or other community supports. Please visit our website for more information
