Communion Reflection...

Some people appear to be only a small part of our daily activities. They call now and then or occasionally visit. We almost take it for granted that they will always be there. Then someone moves away or goes off to college. Suddenly we come to realize how much a part of our life they've turned out to be and we miss them. Believe it or not some people actually take God for granted. He's always there and that's that. As life goes on, a vacuum develops in our spiritual life. We feel adrift and are unable to maintain a sense of direction or control. The inner serenity we are accustomed to isn't there anymore. All that's necessary to restore that inner peace is a willingness to keep in touch with Him. No long distance calls or letters are necessary; just a short prayer will do.

So often we get caught up in the insignificant things of life and allow them to almost completely overtake us. This could happen in a relationship when we sense that someone is being unkind or insensitive to us. We focus on the hurt we feel, and, at that moment, we act as if nothing else in the world really mattered. At these times the wider picture gets lost. To succeed in life we need to become aware of the eternal perspective. Without the bigger picture, we inevitably make the wrong decision. We don't see things clearly, and so don't act properly. As we approach the end of our Church year, we are reminded today that life as we know it will come to an end. What seems so important to us today will disappear like a puff of smoke. Perhaps we could use this time as a chance to look at those things in our lives which take up most of our energies. Are they really that important? Would it be a disaster if I spent less time and energy on some of them? Do other things in my life need more attention. In the bigger picture, what are the things or situations in my life that need more of my care?

This Weeks 2nd Collection: Shepherds' Trust

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. For many of our retired shepherds, this means "lending a hand" to accommodate their special needs so that they continue to live with dignity. This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it is a way to care for those who always cared for us and give thanks for the blessings we have received through them.

Provide A Meal... The last weekend of the month is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Pans and recipes are available at the house porch of St. John's Church. Providing essential services requires a collective effort, and Good Shepherd cannot do it alone. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church.

Man is apt to think that once in time only was My Miracle-working Power in action. That is not so. Wherever man trusts wholly in Me, and leaves to Me the choosing of the very day and hour, then there is My miracle-working Power as manifest, as marvelously manifest today, as ever it was when I was on Earth, as ever it was to set My apostles free, or to work miracles of wonder and healing through them. Trust in Me. Have a boundless faith in Me, and you will see, and, seeing, will give Me all the glory. Remember, and say often to yourselves, "Not by might, nor by Power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord." Dwell much in thought upon all I accomplish on Earth, and then say to yourselves, "He, our Lord, our Friend, could accomplish this now in our lives." Apply these miracles to your present-day need, and know that your Help and Salvation are sure.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven."

Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar.

November health tip from our Parish Nurse...
November is a good reminder to practice gratitude and stay connected with others. Strong social and spiritual connections can reduce stress and contribute to better mental and physical health. Making efforts to connect with others helps lessen stress and feelings of loneliness. Do it for yourself or do it for others. Either way, it's a positive mental health strategy. Please visit our website for more information https://stjohntheevangelistca.archtoronto.org/en/parish-life Or contact Cheryl directly by email at stjohncaledonparishnurse@gmail.com
