Catholic Women's League - 2021 In this time of great national difficulty, we here at the CWL understand what you and every other member is having to deal with at this time. We are all going through the same challenges. We understand that in addition to the stress of the situation, not having a place to worship and gather is something you have missed. We have all sacrificed and missed a lot due to the pandemic and we look forward to a time when we can resume our meetings and activities. At present, we kindly ask that any member who is willing and able to support the CWL, please remit their dues for the 2021 year by mailing a cheque for $30 to St. John's Church, or by dropping the money off at the office. Please clearly indicate CWL on the memo line/envelope. If you would like to sign up and be part of the CWL, please email stjohntheevangelistCWL@gmail.com.

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Each one of us Christians is a branch of the one vine which is Jesus; and all of us together are called to bear the fruits of this common membership in Christ.

Communion Reflection... Before the advent of even creation itself, God eternally speaks but one Word. This one Word, this one image, this one idea of God is perfect as He is perfect and thus is nothing less than God himself. All of creation come to be through this Word, and all that ever will be will be finally summed up again in this same Word. In the time and space between "what was" and "what will be," we live. We live, always listening for that Word throughout all of our days. In a special way, as we now enter this still new year, let us quiet ourselves so that we can attentively listen for that one Word that is the fulfillment of all things. In history, that one Word became flesh. In our lives now, let's make room for that Word to be incarnate anew in us. In doing so, we prepare ourselves to have the fulfillment of all our most heartfelt longing.

We all put so much hope in so many things every day. We hope that the weather will be better, we hope that traffic will be light on the way home from work, we hope that we get what we really want for our Birthday.

Most of the "hopes," however, are not really hopes at all. Rather, they are merely expressions of desire—sincere wishes to be sure, but not the same as the hope that God offers to us. The virtue of hope is the confidence that God is in complete control of our lives, and as such, we have nothing to fear. When we go through the struggles of our lives, it can be really hard to let go and trust in this way! And yet, Christ call us to do just that: to rest in peace with his Holy Spirit in our hearts. In the hopeful space we make for him, he assures us: "I have it under control." Heavenly Father, I want to trust that my life is totally in your hands. Grant peace to my heart.

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life... The purpose on this day is "to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels" as well as "to be a suitable occasion for consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle the fervor which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord" - Pope John Paul II, 1997 message.

On Tues., Feb. 2, the Church celebrates the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life. This day is a wonderful opportunity for us to thank God for the gifts of these religious sisters, brothers and priests and to pray for God's blessing upon them in their efforts to faithfully live the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience.

Provide-A-Meal... This weekend is our Chili Collection for The Good Shepherd. Chili's may be dropped off in the freezer, located in the porch of the house at St. John's Church. Pans and recipes are available. Over 1300 meals and snacks are served every day. Your generous donations are making a difference.

My mom proclaimed the greatness of the Lord in chocolate cupcakes. Each one was like a little gift to the world. She didn't use fancy decorations or sprinkles or cute paper holders. But she piles extravagant amounts of chocolate buttercream on them, topping each cupcake off like a tall top hat. And while more practical moms might have thinned out the frosting for high volume events like bake sales, mom just dolloped the goodness on even thicker. It wasn't about getting something done fast and cheap. It was about filling the hungry with good things and lifting up everyone. Where are you seeing God's great generosity today? Let this goodness lift you up.

Prayer for Generosity...

Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labour and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.
