Vocations... St. Paul reminds us that we are "created in Christ Jesus for good works." If you think God's plan for you could be to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of

Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.ca

Attention Parents: I have scoured the internet and found a great resource from the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Singapore of all places, who prepare a Sunday Mass for children, by children each week. It can be found by searching "Sunday Mass for Children Singapore."

Pope Francis @Pontifex... Lent is a journey that involves our whole life, our entire being. It is a time to reconsider the path we are taking, to find the route that leads us home and to rediscover our profound relationship with God, on whom everything depends.

Thank You!!! For your generosity and commitment to St. John's & St. Cornelius as we serve the Caledon Community together. All tax receipts for the 2020 year have been mailed out.

Please allow 3 weeks for delivery. If you do not receive your tax receipts by March 19, please call the office and let us know. Please note: Family of Faith tax receipts come from the Archdiocese. 2020 Financial report is included with the tax receipts. If anyone has any questions, please call the Fr. Bob at 905-880-0080.

Communion Reflection... When I was little, some members of the family were more welcome than others. Some neighbours were favoured and others disdained. Even Catholics in town were ranked according to ethnicity and presumed stereotypes. It seemed acceptable to reject people based on who they were or the choices they made. But it felt wrong. Jesus claims a tax collector as a disciple. He follows this up by dining at a house full of undesirables. This can be a little confusing to anybody who still thinks it's okay to write certain people off. Jesus meets Levi at his post, so there's no question that Jesus knows what Levi does for a living. He's a traitor, lining the pocket for his efforts on behalf of the Romans. Obviously he's a bad guy. Who would welcome him? Jesus does. He likewise accepts the hospitality of this villain. As a result, Levi flips and joins the Jesus team. He even becomes the evangelist Matthew. What a strategy! No one can be transformed by love when they're outside the circle of its embrace.

The Season of Lent

Life is busy—and fun! We might be studying and going to school. We're working. We're cleaning and gardening and fixing things. But sometimes, we need a break from the busy. We need quiet and thinking time. What a relief it is to just be by ourselves outdoors or inside our room—walking or sitting in the quiet—just us and God. Jesus leads the way for us, right here in Lent. At the beginning of his earthly public journey of loving and sharing, Jesus took forty days alone in the desert, where he fasted and prayed. We can't grow closer to the Lord until we start being honest about who we are right now. So, we take some quiet time in Lent to be honest with God about ourselves—the good and the bad, the weak and the strong.

Stations of the cross are able to be viewed on our YouTube channel.

Unfortunately at this time, we are not able to hold in person Stations of the Cross.

Provide-A-Meal... It takes a community to make positive changes in the lives of people, and you are a large part of that change. Thank you for your compassion and support. Your gift is already hard at work.

Prayer for the 4th Sunday of Lent

God of abundant mercy, give us the courage to ask humbly
for forgiveness where we have failed, and to grant it where we have been wronged.
Heal our wounds and make us whole, that we might find the joy of life lived fully.

After four years of not seeing each other, two neighbours met at a wedding. Twenty seconds into the conversation, one launched into a series of complaints—problems with their spouse, trouble with the younger son, and intimate details of their health. The complainers. When you see them headed your way, you want to run in the opposite direction. We all know a few people like this, who have developed a habit of moaning and griping. For them, the glass is always half empty and nothing ever goes their way. Some people can't seem to stop themselves from putting a negative spin on everything. When you're around them, it's frustrating, annoying, and draining. It's time to call them out on their behaviour and tell them to stop it. Encourage them to notice how their complaining is pushing people out of their lives. Reinforce this by challenging them to take note of all the good things happening in their lives and all the reasons to be happy and grateful. Remind them to make this a permanent part of their conversations from this day forward.

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was fourteen or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep.

Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. A few years after returning home, Patrick had a vision that prompted his studies for the priesthood. Patrick arrived in Slane, Ireland on March 25, 433. He preached and built churches across the country. He often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity and entire kingdoms were eventually converted to Christianity after hearing Patrick's message. Patrick preached and converted all of Ireland for 40 years. He worked many miracles and wrote of his love for God in Confessions. After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering he died on March 17, 461. Patrick was a humble, pious, gentle man, whose love and total devotion to and trust in God should be a shining example to each of us.
